There will be a small donation and each guest is asked to bring a gift or gadget. Refreshments will be served and door prizes awarded. The public is invited.

Edison

Mrs. William Cassida presided over a meeting of the Edison PTA executive board Tuesday evening in the school teachers' room. The purpose of the meeting was to put finishing touches on the program for the next general meeting to be held Wednesday evening, Nov. 13, at 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

The theme of the November 13th meeting will be "Scientific Harvest." Mrs. Arthur Lundberg, music chairman, announced that the Mothersingers, an Edison mothers' music group, will be featured on the program. There will also be two films, "Atomic Fury" and "Atomic Greenhouse," plus reports from the Inspiration magazine and Newsette committees. The first grade mothers will be hostesses for the evening.

Other business discussed included the possibility of a book fair to start a school library, Thanksgiving baskets for needy families, and a display of magazines related to the Parent-Teacher Assn.

259th Place

"100% membership was our goal" said Mrs. Dan Bowling, membership chairman of the 259th Place School PTA, "and we made it."

The faculty was also 100 per cent and they deserve much of the credit for the PTA reaching their goal, according to Mrs. Bowling.

Sol Mann's B-5 class had the most memberships and the most men members in the south building. Mrs. Evelyn Brown's B1-A1 class had the most memberships and the most men members in the north building. Mrs. Hazel Travis' kindergarten class had the most memberships in the kindergarten group.

Each of the classes above received a prize.

Anza

Anza PTA will meet this evening at 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria. Miss Pleso's afternoon kindergarten class will sing Thanksgiving songs. Mrs. Gordon Stephens, president, will conduct a short business meeting. Program topic is "Emphasis on Arithmetic" with a film on arithmetic readiness. Several teachers will set up a display on books, classroom aids, and samples of work. Grant Ruby, fifth grade teacher, will give a talk on formal presentation of arithmetic.
