

'How-to' Books Suggested for Gardening List

One of the most recent of the "how to" books was published this fall by the company which issues Sunset magazine, Lane Publishing Co. Entitled "How to Grow Camellias," this new book covers the propagation and care of camellias, lists some popular varieties, and includes many helpful hints on selecting nursery stock.

The California Association of Nurserymen notes that local nurseries throughout the state are supplied with copies of the new book for Christmas shoppers to look over.

"How to Grow Camellias" covers camellia growing in a manner similar to that used by the Larie staff in many older books. Many of the most popular books in this vein are stocked by local nurseries. Among the other Sunset books are "Western Garden Book," a thorough survey of gardening conditions and problems in the West; "Landscaping for Western Living"; "How to Grow Roses," a best selling rose grower's handbook; "Pruning Handbook," and "How to Care for Your Lawn."

Many other gardening books are carried by local nurseries, among them comprehensive surveys of gardening from every aspect. Two of the most popular of this type have been put out by the publishers of Good Housekeeping and Better Homes & Gardens. The latter is put out in two editions, one in a binder for later additions.

With his expert knowledge of the gardening world, the local nurseryman is always willing to help Christmas shoppers select the appropriate book for the gardeners on their list.

'HATFUL OF RAIN' RUN EXTENDED

Two extended performances of the San Pedro Theatre Arts production of "A Hatful of Rain" were announced today. Originally scheduled to close last Sunday, the play has been held over for Friday and Saturday nights, Nov. 29 and 30. Curtain will go up both evenings at 8:15 p.m. at the Pacific Playhouse, 501 S. Cabrillo Ave.

Reservations for these performances are being accepted by Mrs. John Kopyczak, 2828 Carolina St., or by Mrs. Jim Allen, 2820 Carolina St. The three-act play, directed by Jimmy Allen, is the original, uncut version of the Broadway hit which depicts the story of drug addiction and its effect on one family.

Starring in the production are Sylvia Budd, Ron Hogue, Jim Flynn, Walter Buck, James Wilson, Ted Cheadle, Andy Rosenthal, Nancy Sullivan and Dan Jeldun.

John Baird Will Address HR Sportsmen

Members of the Hollywood Riviera Sportsman's Club will hear John Baird, special consultant to the Southern California Gas Co., at their meeting Wednesday, Dec. 11.

The meeting will be held at 8 p.m. at the Redondo Legion Hall, 412 S. Camino Real, according to Program Chairman L. L. Bonnette. Baird will weave humorous anecdotes about Gas Co. people and their customers into the more serious story of supplying ever-increasing amounts of natural gas to the expanding Southland economy. The title of his talk is "Laughing Gas." Following the meeting, the club will serve lunch.

Baptist Rites Slated Sunday

"The Lord Our Guide" will be the subject of the Rev. W. F. Alexander, pastor of the First Baptist Church, located at 158th and Brighton Ave.—one block west of Normandie Ave., in Gardena.

A junior church will be conducted concurrently with the regular church service at 11 a.m.

The soloist for the morning service will be J. Milton McElyea.

Sunday school for all ages will meet at 9:45 a.m.
