Annual College Christmas Program Scheduled Sunday

Two performances of El Camino College's 11th annual Christmas Concert will be presented in the College Campus Theater Dec. 15. The stagings will open at 4 and 8 p.m.

Performing in the concert will be the capella choir, community choir, vocal ensemble and the orchestra, under the direction of R. Neil Hill and L. Calvin Greer, college music instructors.

This year's presentation is a recitative cantata composed by Heinrich Schultze. "The Christmas Story" is described as the achievement that suitably crowns the long life of one of music's greatest masters.

Solosists to be featured in the presentation are Robert Hill, Evangelist; Patt Doffing, Angel 1; Shirley Barnes, Mavis Ricketts and Peggy McKnight, Shepherds; Jean Hearman, Larry Schenck and Bill Horst, wisemen; Norman Collins, Sherwood Tiernan, Louis Higginbotham and Jack Vaughn, priests and scribes; Bruce Steiner, Herod; Marjorie Gibson, Angel 2; and Lynn Rupert, Angel 3.

A recitative sung by the Evangelist will precede each intermedium, and the interludes are recordings by the choral groups. The narrator will be Roger Wright.

Tickets will be required for both performances and may be acquired in advance at the student store or before each performance at the box office if seats are available. No admission charge will be made.

Final Chest Reports Due Here Today

In the competition to raise funds for the current Community Chest campaign, the Harbor Area took second place by a hair's breadth to Centinela Valley among the five areas of the Associated Cities of the Los Angeles Area Community Chest appeal, Jay A. Robinson, Harbor Area chairman, announced Tuesday, at the Associated Cities Report Meeting.

The Harbor Area, which had raised at that time 95.23 of its quota of $86,858, lost the Valentine Trophy to Centinela Valley with 95.38 of its quota raised. The Associated Cities Area with the highest percentage of quota at the time of the final report meeting, Dec. 12, will keep the trophy.

At the meeting Robinson presented an oscar to Mrs. Harold Kavalaris, as city chairman of Rolling Hills, the first city in the Harbor Area to top its quota.

Robinson said, "I hope that anyone who has not as yet made his contribution to the Chest, will mail it in to the campaign headquarters, 1025 S. Pacific, San Pedro, and anyone who has already contributed but who feels he could contribute more, his additional contribution will be greatly appreciated. Let's make our quota as soon as possible."

Service Station O.K.

Approval of a variance to permit erection of a gasoline service station at the corner of Arlington Ave. and Sepulveda was approved by the council Tuesday on the recommendation of the planning commission.

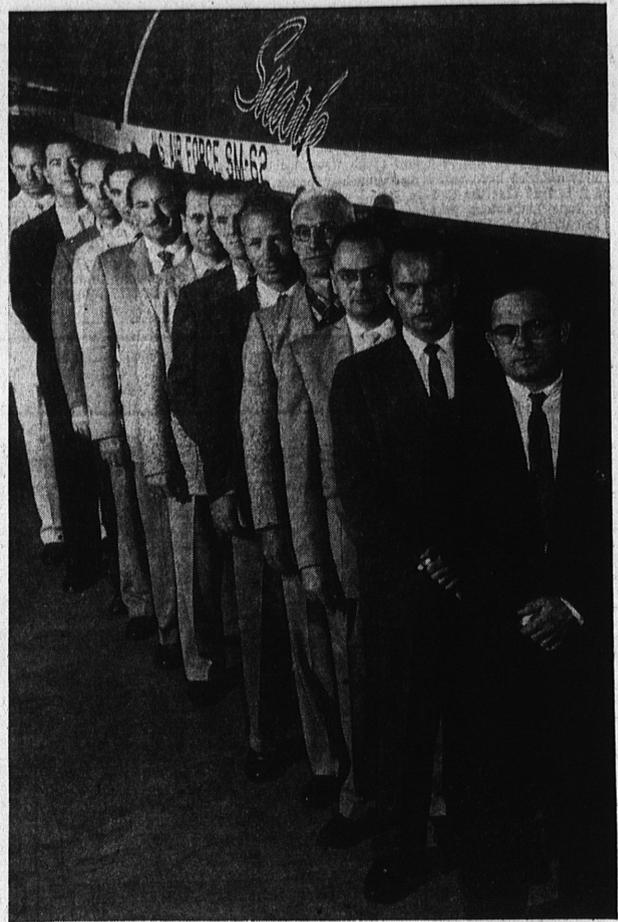

To Extend Mains

Approval to extend water mains 680 feet to serve an area on 226th St. between Ocean Ave. and Kent St. was granted Torrance Municipal Water District this week by the council. Cost of the project will be $2400.

Moose Plan Busy Holiday Schedule, Governor Says

A Christmas party for the children of Moose members, a "Holiday" dinner-dance, and a New Year's Eve party are featured on the December social calendar of the Torrance lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose, Fred Lydy, governor, announced this week.

At least 200 children are expected to attend the annual Christmas party for members of the Moose family to be held at the lodge hall, 1744 W. Carson St., on Sunday, Dec. 15th, starting at 1 p.m., according to James Johnston and Dan Desmond Co-chairmen of the party. Santa Claus will be on hand to distribute toys and assorted candies and cookies to all those attending the party.

Lodge and Chapter members will again distribute toys to needy children and hospitalized children as part of a regular Christmas program scheduled by the Torrance Moose.

Holiday Dance
The holiday season will be officially opened by the Moose lodge with a dinner-dance at the lodge hall Saturday, Dec. 14th. George Clay, ways and means committee chairman, has announced that dinner will be served to members, their guests and the general public starting at 6 p.m. The dance portion of the holiday program will get under way at 9 p.m.

Dance arrangements are under the direction of William Griep. The annual lodge drawing will be held immediately following the dance.

New Year's Eve
Members of the Moose lodge will again participate in the annual New Year's Eve party to be presented at the lodge hall on Tuesday, Dec. 31st, starting at 9 p.m.

Narbonne's Coeds to Sell Candy Today

The annual candy sale of the Narbonne High School's Girls' League has been scheduled on the campus today. The girls will sell candy canes before school, during snack periods, during the noon hour, and after school. The canes may be eaten during the fifth period, they report.

Profits from the sale will be used by the group for charities. Last year's sale proceeds was used for Hungarian relief. Scheduled as salesmen today are Penny Goethals, Jane Wada, Regis Stevens, Marion Winsvrg, Gloria Munoz, Pat Pinder, Jeanne Steigh, Cynthia Pederson, and Lucille Saracco.
