Harbor Docs Share Lead In Volleyball

Harbor Hospital Resident Physicians and the Stunners volleyball teams share the top spot in the Torrance Recreation Department's 10 Team Men's League at the conclusion of three weeks of play staged on Thursday evening in the Boys Gym at Torrance High School. These two teams have identical 5 wins and one loss records.

The Docs reached the pinnacle by virtue of a twin win over the previously undefeated Rotary Club sextet by 15-7 and 15-8 scores. The Stunners also successfully met a previously undefeated foe downing the Beachcombers 16-14 and 15-10.

In other games a hustling Torrance Teachers team outlasted the Kiwanis Club 15-8 and 15-5. The North Torrance Lions Club won two games via the forfeit route from the Harbor Hospital Interns and the Christian Men picked up their first win by splitting a pair with the Optimist 11-15 and 15-8.

STANDINGS:

Harbor Hosp. Res. Physicians	5	1
Stunners	5	1
Beachcombers	4	2
Rotary	3	3
Optimist	3	3
Teachers	2	4
Kiwanis	2	4
N. Tor. Lions	2	4
Christian Men	1	5
Harbor Interns	1	5

Roast Catches Fire

A considerably overdone roast in a broiler started a small fire at the A. J. Magliari home, 2322 W. 180th Pl., late Saturday, Torrance firemen reported.

'7-Year Itch' To Close Run On Saturday

The last two performances of Hampton Players' show, "The Seven Year Itch," will be given this Friday and Saturday evenings at 129 Pacific Ave., Redondo Beach. This comedy by George Axelrod has been giving adult audiences laughs for the past four week ends.

Director Jim Reeves is assisted by George Hocutt. The cast is headed by Dick Miller and Connie Willis. Jack Drake, Pat Rogers and Neal Werner have the principal supporting roles, while Marie Denn, Jean Snider and Jeanne Kluga are decorative and comi-

Little League In Southwood

There will be a Little League organization meeting on Monday, Dec. 16, at 7:30 p.m., at the Anza School cafeteria, 21400 Ellenwood Dr. in Southwood. Officers will be elected at this meeting.

A large, leveled lot near the corner of Lee and Ellenwood Sts. has been granted to the group for 2-3 years by the city for the Little League site.

The meeting Dec. 16 at the Anza School is to secure the lot in their brief appearances. Keith Homer Snook rounds out the cast as the 6-year-old son. Curtain is at 8:30, but early arrival is recommended as patrons have had to be turned away at the door for the past two week ends.

Civitan Club Given Award For 'Build-Up'

The Torrance Civitan Club of Torrance, during its "Operation Build-Up" which started in July, has experienced a growth rivaling that of the city of Torrance itself, according to President M. W. "Heimie" Heimerdingger.

When the membership drive started on July 1, the club had 22 members. At the present time it has 67 members. The club received national recognition for its outstanding growth. The club also was honored as its past president, Tom Ward, was elected lieutenant governor of the California-Arizona district of Civitan.

Party Slates Meet Tonight

The Steering Committee of the South Bay Constitution Party will hold a special meeting tonight at the home of area chairman Ray Anderson, 1316 First St., Manhattan Beach.

Members will formulate recommendations to the County Committee, and discuss plans to present another Constitution Party speaker locally as soon as possible. Col. William P. Gale, who is seeking the gubernatorial nomination from the party as soon as it legally qualifies on the California ballot, spoke before an audience in the South Bay last week.

State leaders of the party held a rally in Sacramento last week end and expressed confidence that the necessary 50,000 registrants or 400,000 petition signatures, will be obtained to place the Constitution Party on the official ballot. They reiterated their stand upon the founding principles as expressed in the party's national platform.

Any qualified voter may change his registration to the Constitution Party by visiting the City Hall. A registrar of voters is on duty at all times.

ECC Wrestlers Travel North To Cal Poly

Members of the El Camino College wrestling team will travel north for their second encounter of the season.

Leaving Warrioville today, coach Dave Hengsteler's charges will meet Cal Poly at San Luis Obispo tonight, Modesto JC at Modesto Friday, and Fresno JC at Fresno on Saturday night.

Of the 17 men out for the squad this year, Hengsteler has singled out Colman Polvado, a 137 or 147 pound threat from Colorado. Mike Coyle from Redondo, also a good prospect in the 147 class; Dewey Weber, 130 pound Southern California Junior College Conference champion, and Larry Swallow also from Redondo and a good prospect in the 157 pound division, as candidate for outstanding performances.

Other members of the team are Dick Keelor, heavyweight champion last year; Don Wood, 123 pound class; Arlen Steiner, returning from the 1955 squad; Richard Deese, 147 pounder from Mira Costa; Bill Ice, 157 pounds, from Montezuma; Jerry Blaskovich, 167 pounds; Dick Burton, 177 pound division, from Inglewood; Wayne Atkins, also a 177 pounder from Inglewood; and Laurie Belger, a 191 pounder from Inglewood.

Hengsteler says, "Larry Swallow could very well be the most outstanding wrestler on the team this year. Since workouts started,

CROWN ROAST OF PORK IS FESTIVE FAIRE
A crown roast of pork is a party roast. It is meat you'll be proud to serve for an especially festive dinner.

When you are buying a crown of pork plan on two ribs per serving, and ask the butcher to grind the trimmings. Do not pack trimmings in the center of the roast—this increases roasting time more than is desirable.

You'll be wise to place your order early so your busy butcher will have time to prepare the roast. If you like, pick up the meat a day or so before your dinner. Store the roast, loosely covered with waxed paper, in your refrigerator and combine the ground pork with hamburger for a tasty meat loaf.

IT'S EASY TO COOK
At cooking time, wipe the meat with a damp cloth and season with salt and pepper. Crimp pieces of aluminum foil tightly around the bones to keep them done.

from getting too brown. Wrap a clean empty can with foil and place it in the center of the roast to keep its shape during cooking. Place the roast on a rack in a shallow pan and cook in 325° oven to 185° on roast-meat thermometer. Allow 3 1/2 to 4 hours for a 6 to 7 lb. crown roast of pork.

One hour before the meat is done remove the can and fill center of roast with sweet potato stuffing or your favorite bread stuffing. Complete the cooking and remove foil from bones. Serve roast on a large platter. Slip paper frills over the bones and arrange attractive garnish around meat.

SWEET POTATO STUFFING
2 1/2 to 3 lbs. sweet potatoes
1 lb. apples
3 Tbsp. minced onion
4 Tbsp. butter
1/2 C. brown sugar
1 1/2 Tbsp. grated lemon rind
Salt and pepper to taste
Peel potatoes and apples. Cook separately in a little boiling water until just tender. Drain and mash. Sauté onion in butter until golden. Mix onion, brown sugar, lemon rind and seasoning in with mashed potatoes and apples. Heap lightly in center of crown roast of pork 1 hour before meat done.
