

LOCAL PTA ACTIVITIES

North High

North High School PTA executive board held its business meeting and Christmas party Thursday at the Palms restaurant.

Tables were decorated with frosted pink trees and miniature pink angels were at each place.

Mrs. Dale Harter asked the blessing and Mrs. Joe Begando presided at the business session.

Mrs. B. Richardson was elected candidate from North High school to the Torrance council. Mrs. H. Herrera, auditor, gave her report and Dale Harter reported on the TEAC luncheon.

It was also voted to support the Council's variety show to aid the milk fund and volunteers to assist with the Rose Parade float were solicited.

Attending were: Mmes. Joe Begando, W. H. Bayliff, W. Y. Willis, R. L. Turner, B. Richardson, H. Herrera, J. R. Sanders, R. R. Back, R. Heys, B. Baker, B. Sherwood, M. Simmons, G. C. Powell, R. L. McDonald, R. Brigham, S. Trevathen, H. Marshlain and Mr. Dale Harter.

Halldale

Halldale Ave. PTA board members held their annual Christmas party on Dec. 12, in the school auditorium. The party, as is tradition, was hosted by Armanda Wilhelm, principal of Halldale. The table was artfully decorated in the Christmas decor and each guest received a little angel nut cup. Gifts piled high under the tree were exchanged.

After the party-meeting, several of the women enjoyed a Christmas luncheon at the Marineland restaurant. Those attending were: Mmes. Frank Bowling Jr., B. N. Kellam, Irvin Bishop, William Brock, Jack Kenyon, Douglas Cowdry, F. E. Dye, Donald Hartman, Gordon Black, W. L. Harvey, Harry Nowakowski, and Richard Sabey.

South High

At the December South High PTA meeting conducted by Mrs. David Sokoloff, president, Norman Molloy led the pledge of allegiance. The inspirational was a tape recording of "I Speak for Democracy" by Judi Tye, winner of the South High School Voice of Democracy contest.

Mrs. Fred Geisel, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Madeline O'Connor, work experience counselor. Mrs. O'Connor outlined the program given at South High. Lysle Albro, district work experience coordinator, showed slides of the program from the time a student applies for the course and is employed in part time work. Five students now enrolled in the course told of their experiences in the field they had chosen. Konrad Beck and Sharon Berg, Candy Strippers, Maren Courtney, work experience, Marilyn Olding, Future Teachers and Ruth Pennington, sales and merchandise.

High School

Mrs. Paul Crossman, president, conducted the last 1958 meeting of the Torrance High School PTA executive board at the school on Nov. 18. The next meeting of the group will be Monday, Jan. 5, 1959.

Reports were given by Leonard Lifton, acting principal, and Mmes. C. W. Strahm, Albert Steele, Charles Robinson and Isabelle Kelly. It was voted to send a note of thanks to the Student Council for their financial help in the publication of the Handbooks.

Mrs. Thomas Denman was ratified as Honorary Life and Founder's Day Chairman. Serving with Mrs. Denman will be Mmes. Henry Heinlein, Walter Mathlin, William McDade and Mr. Leonard Lifton.

Mrs. C. W. Strahm gave an extensive report on the recent T.E.A.C. luncheon at which Dr. Goodwill, superintendent of Santa Monica Schools, was guest speaker. She related Dr. Goodwill's comments on his trip to Russia and his description of the Russian school system. His comparison of Sputnik and the primitive methods of transportation emphasized how their progress is limited to the academic field.

Mrs. E. C. Osterlind, graduation party chairman, has been meeting with Mrs. Graves, senior class advisor, along with a committee of students, John Bentwood, Ken Pevic, Peggy Neely, Barbara Heibert, and Diane Wayt, to get plans for the party underway. The organization, along with other units and local service clubs contributes to the cost of the party.

To Indiana

Dr. and Mrs. O. E. Fossum, 1621 Cota, left Wednesday by train for Bloomington, Ind., to spend the holidays with their daughter, Mrs. Clete Burke and family. Mr. Burke is professor at the University of Indiana. Mrs. Burke is the former Joy Fossum. The local couple will return after New Year's.

Arlington

The Christmas program of Arlington Elementary PTA was held in the school cafeteria on Dec. 11, with Mrs. Francis Stutler, president, in charge. After a short business meeting, a musical program was presented by Mrs. Lloyd Van de Vort. The school band under the direction of Neil Short, in their first appearance, played several Christmas carols. This was followed by the upper and lower class choirs in an especially delightful rendition of "Twelve Days of Christmas." Arlington's Mothersingers with their director, Mrs. Jerry Leonard, sang two numbers in keeping with the holiday season. Being a completely musical program, it was concluded with favorite Christmas carols sung by the entire association. The social hour followed and mothers of the second grade were hostesses.

Carle Steele

"Christmas Around the World" was the theme of the December meeting of the Carle Steele PTA.

Foreign exchange students, Per Stanevik from Norway and Deiter Seiler from Germany, described the Christmas customs of their respective countries.

Music was the order of the evening with the Carle Steele Band opening the entertainment with a medley of Christmas songs. Their director was Jerry Andrews. The Carle Steele Carolers, conducted by Philip Korman, presented a group of carols from other countries. The children sang in the foreign language indicated in each carol.

Mrs. Lorman Griffith led the Steele Belles in several favorite carols and concluded with an inspiring rendition of the Hallelujah Chorus.

During the brief business meeting under the leadership of president Mrs. Thomas Greene, an Honorary Life Membership Committee was nominated and elected which included Mmes. George Fowler, H. C. Watts, Jack Erving, Loren Scheele, Warren Steele, John Lansing and Vencil Gray.

Christmas Greetings

Joy in friendship is one of the greatest pleasures of Christmas, and so it is with much warmth that we wish our friends and patrons a Merry Christmas.
