Mothers Hold Yule Party

Nativity Mothers Club held a gala Christmas party and gift exchange at the parish hall on Dec. 9.

Mrs. James Fornelli and Mrs. James Carlin, co-chairmen of a recent jewelry show, highlighted the meeting by awarding lovely surprise gifts to the eight members whose participation had been the highest.

Mrs. George Witz led all others in cooperation and was presented with a Kodak movie camera, projector and screen. Mrs. Fornelli and Mrs. Carlin were thanked for having conducted the most successful monetary project in the club's history.

Christmas came early for Mrs. Redding and Mrs. Reamer who were recipients of surprise gifts donated by Jack Dabbs and Mrs. Harley Berning.

The eighth grade girls of Scout Troop 610 under the leadership of Mrs. Leonard Rock, entertained with the singing of carols. Mrs. Andrew Janasik, co-leader, accompanied them at the piano.

Police officer, Don Hartell, presented a comical but timely film relative to accidents caused by both drivers and pedestrians. A humor film "On the Twelfth Night" climaxed the Christmas party.

Delicious refreshments were served by the fifth grade mothers under the chairmanship of Mrs. Edmund Metivier.

Family Here

Arriving by plane Tuesday morning from Somerset, Mass., were Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Giza, who will spend the holidays here with their son and family. Mr. and Mrs. Zygmund Giza, and children, 19413 Anza. Mrs. Giza's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald arrived last Friday from Yuma, Ariz. to spend the holidays. This will be the first time Mr. Giza has spent Christmas with his parents since 1940.

Mrs. Fisher Named Altar Society Head

Mrs. Edna Fisher was elected president of the St. Margaret Mary Altar society at the meeting held Dec. 10. Directing affairs of the society for the next year under the leadership of Mrs. Fisher will be Mrs. Ruth Barney, vice president; Mrs. Josephine D'Ambrosi, secretary; Mrs. Flo Pizzo, treasurer; Mrs. Betty Meyers, financial secretary; Mrs. Theresa Griffith, press chairman.

These new officers will be installed in ceremonies at the parish hall on Jan. 7.

A pot luck supper which preceded the election was enjoyed by 117 members. Serving as hostesses were members of the St. Mary and the Our Lady of Guadalupe Guilds.

Recent visitor under the International Hosting program offered by the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, Marina District, CFWC, was Miss Sudharma Dharma-dasa from Ratanapora, Ceylon. Her hosts during her visit to Torrance were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gardner, 3222 Sonoma.

Miss Dharmadasa is a practicing civil and criminal lawyer, also a rural judge. She is 29 years old, and manages her father's rubber and rice fields.

This was Miss Dharmadasa's first trip out of Ceylon and she toured Rome, Switzerland, Greece, and England before arriving in the United States. On her return trip home, she will visit the Far East.

Mrs. Clifford Trezise, International hostess chairman for the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, arranged Miss Dharmadasa's visit.

Greetings of the season to you, our friends and patrons! May peace and happiness be in your heart and joy in your home at this glad and glorious holiday time.

LOCAL PTA ACTIVITIES

Fleming

Fleming Junior High PTA met Tuesday, Nov. 25 in the school auditorium with Mrs. Joseph Butler presiding. Citizenship chairman, Mrs. Ottis Lovell, led the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag and character education chairman, Mrs. Marvin E. Fulton, gave the inspirational message. During the short business meeting, health chairman, Mrs. Morwick Ross, gave a report on the recent dental survey in the school.

Mrs. George Weeks presented an interesting program. The school orchestra, under the direction of Wayne Sherman, played several selections. Mr. Sherman also told of the musical education program at Fleming and invited all children to participate. Principal P. E. Turner introduced Dan Mulock, supervisor of educational housing branch of the Los Angeles Board of Education, and Don Campbell, head of junior high planning. Then Mr. Turner proceeded to interview Mr. Mulock, who told of the planned program of rehabilitation at Fleming with a new 20 classroom unit building planned, a new cafeteria and multipurpose room, structural strengthening of the present auditorium and Little Theater wing and the redoing of the field. This very much desired work has been started and will be completed within the next two years. He then told of the board of education's plans for the Palos Verdes area—a six-year high school is planned for the Lunada Bay area and the Dodson Junior High School in San Pedro which will serve the residents of the eastern Palos Verdes area. They hope to have both these schools completed by spring of 1961. An additional site of 38 acres has been purchased in the center of Palos Verdes High School to be built at a later date.

Refreshments were served after the meeting with members from Palos Verdes serving as hostesses.

232nd Place

Children's voices rang out in song as they presented a Christmas program for the members and guests of the PTA of 232nd Place School. As all the familiar carols were sung, a pantomime of the Nativity scene was enacted.

The guest speaker for the meeting was Miss Linda Cooper from the public speaking class at Banning High School. Her clear interpretation of the Bill of Rights, clarified many important and significant points contained therein.

The B6, A6 room taught by Mrs. Nancy Ann Morris, had the most parents in attendance and were awarded a library book as a prize.

It was announced by Mrs. William Andreas, president, that a rag and paper drive will be held on Jan. 14.

Refreshments were served by second grade room mothers.

Walteria

The international aspects of Christmas were stressed at the last meeting of the Walteria PTA with the students presenting the annual Christmas pageant. This year numbers included "An Early America Christmas" complete with "Christmas in Mexico" with the replica of the annual Christmas procession as held in that land; "Christmas in Alaska" with an original song composed by the class; "Merry Old England" with a frosted window stage set and English carols; "The Christmas Dance" from Norway which was taught the students by an exchange

Haldale

Following the theme "Stars Look Down," Haldale students under the direction of Ruth Adams presented a musical "Under the Stars" on Dec. 16, in the school auditorium. The program depicted songs and dances from many countries. The "Snow Bells" opened the program with two selections "Christmas Night" and "O, Holy Night." The school orchestra played three selections, "Kindergarten Rhythmic Airs" under the direction of Helen Cole, Lois Graham and Helen Cipriotti presented "The Little Fir Tree," an adaptation from Hans Christian Anderson. The Cherub Choir consisting of first and second graders sang many Christmas songs. "Twas the Night Before Christmas" was presented in verse choir by fourth grade students directed by Margaret Jensen. Third graders dressed in red and wearing Santa Claus hats danced a Christmas waltz and a polka. Marion Smith directed them.

Harbor Area Mothersingers presented a group of Christmas selections and were joined by Haldale Senior Choir in singing "The Echo Hymn." The Senior Choir sang Christmas carols of other countries and then the audience joined in singing "Joy to the World."

Miss Chalcie McNeese, a student of Fleming Junior High School and a former student at Haldale Ave., spoke on the "Bill of Rights" and presented a prayer for our nation by George Washington. Coffee and cookies were served. Hostesses were Haldale teachers and PTA board members.

Visitor Here From Ceylon

Recent visitor under the International Hosting program offered by the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, Marina District, CFWC, was Miss Sudharma Dharma-dasa from Ratanapora, Ceylon. Her hosts during her visit to Torrance were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gardner, 3222 Sonoma.

Miss Dharmadasa is a practicing civil and criminal lawyer, also a rural judge. She is 29 years old, and manages her father's rubber and rice fields.

This was Miss Dharmadasa's first trip out of Ceylon and she toured Rome, Switzerland, Greece, and England before arriving in the United States. On her return trip home, she will visit the Far East.

Mrs. Clifford Trezise, International hostess chairman for the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, arranged Miss Dharmadasa's visit.

Evelyn Carr

Annual Christmas luncheon of the executive board of the Evelyn Carr PTA was held Wednesday noon, Dec. 10, at Lococo's Restaurant in Manhattan Beach.

Delicate blue and silver decorations adorned the tables.
