

SOCIAL WORLD

Edna Cloyd, Editor

TORRANCE WOMEN CAPTURE ROSE TOURNAMENT HONOR

January 4, 1959

Torrance Herald

Page 7

THE SCROLL BACKDROP . . . With buckets of glue and myriads of blossoms this group of local women decorate the scroll backdrop of the prize winning Torrance float to form a background for the Statue of Liberty. They are from left, Mrs. Jack Lenassi, Mrs. J. Begando, Mrs. M. Simmons and Mrs. R. McDonald, all members of the North High school PTA executive board.

CHRYSANTHEMUMS GALORE . . . The "Spirit of St. Louis" claims the attention of these workers from Torrance clubs. The plane, carrying out the theme "Adventures in Aviation" is covered with chrysanthemum blossoms. Separating the blossoms and clipping them for gluing are from left, Mrs. John Warnock, Mrs. Al Nielsen of the Torrance Woman's club and Mrs. Charles Briner and Mrs. John McVey of the Torrance Junior Club.

HER ROYAL HIGHNESS . . . Miss Betty Baker, "Miss Torrance" and a Torrance High school co-ed, rode the Torrance Tournament of Roses float in regal splendor surrounded by her court princesses, Joyce Cannon, Donna Isbell, Judi Tye and Glenda Schwartz. The Torrance float "Adventures in Aviation" won first place in its class of California cities from 100,000 to 200,000 population. (Photos by Bob Wilton)

FOLLOWING THE CHART . . . They studied the design and followed it to the last detail to produce a prize winning float in the fabulous Tournament of Roses parade. The directors of this civic venture are from left, Mrs. Phillip Clark, of the North Torrance Fuschia society who served as chairman, Mrs. John Erickson, crew chief, Mrs. Richard Gerald, co-chairman and Mrs. John Thuss, district garden chairman of the Torrance Woman's club.

WORK CAN BE FUN . . . These local garden club members are enjoying every minute of this civic work since flower arranging is a hobby with each of them. Lending a hand with covering the plane on the float, are from left, Mrs. A. J. Yackle and Mrs. R. J. Hill of the Beau Jardin Woman's club and Mrs. B. D. Patton and Mrs. Peter Boonstra of the Torrance Woman's club garden section.