SARTORI at EL PRADO Downtown Torrance

FOR 24-HOUR DUTY . . . The white, shiny new Rambler in the background will ramble the waterfront for Harbor longshoremen as official vehicle of the ILWU's four business agents who will cover labor problems for 4000 workers throughout the Long Beach-Los Angeles harbors. Left to right are Local 13 vice-president Jim Gutierrez, Hunt Rambler's general manager Jim Stamper, and Local 13 secretary Art Patton. The Rambler agency is located at 402 W. Anaheim St., Wilmington.

DEPARTMENT EXPANDS . . . Farmer Boys' meat department, under the management of Joe Asher (right), has been completely modernized and expanded and is now reopened. The department will feature fancy steer beef and eastern grain-fed pork, Asher said. Others (from the right) include Marilyn Hodge, Roy Stokes, Al Graham (asst. manager), and C. B. "Tex" Kilgore. The market is at Carson St. and Figueroa.

Pancake Event Set By Church

A pancake breakfast, sponsored by the Adult Christian Endeavor Society of the Central Evangelical United Brethren Church, will take place at the Guild Hall, Arlington Ave., from 7 to 11 a.m. Saturday. Donations of 75c per adult and 50c per child under age 12 will be turned over to the church building fund. The public is invited.
