

YMCA CENTURY CLUB SETS GOAL AT $5000

The Torrance YMCA issued a call today for new members to join the YWCA Century Club. Scott Albright, president of the Century Club, said that the only requirements for membership is a concern for youth and a check for $100.

In a kick-off luncheon hosted by Mayor Isen, 13 civic leaders joined the club for 1959 and selected the names of 56 citizens whom they hope to enroll.

The group plans to raise $5000 before the regular Torrance YMCA Drive gets under way Feb. 12. Albright said that it will require significant gifts by civic leaders and concerned citizens to reach the YMCA goal of $30,000 for 1959.

DONALD HAYWARD, associate general secretary of the Los Angeles YMCA, was guest speaker. He discussed the worth of "teaching just one boy to swim... or sending one boy on a trip to camp... or providing counseling opportunities for just one troubled youth."

Hayward reminded the men present that the local YMCA has thousands of boys and girls receiving benefits of recreation, informal education, and Christian values in the everyday program. He stated that all funds raised in Torrance remain here for the youth of Torrance.

Persons who have already taken a Century Club membership include Charley Calk, Lester Foster, Bert Lynn, Val Milelich, Paul Shinoda, Dr. Joseph Bay, Sam Levy, Danny Butcher, Al Leavitt, Jim Bowler, Scott Albright, Albert Isen,

Lyle Bane, and Joe Wilcox. reported that $2015 had already been subscribed by the luncheon, President Albright men present.
