

TARTER TEEN TALK

By SHARON CLARK

The Boys and Girls Leagues at Torrance High School held a combined installation this year for the first time in several years. Attending the affair last Tuesday were old and new officers of each league, and their sponsors, Mrs. Bertelson, Miss Hennessey, Mr. Arnold, Mr. Lifton, and Mr. Ronan. The installation was held in the school cafeteria where the program was directed by Joyce Wayt. A chicken dinner was served following the installation.

FEB. 20 AND 21 are the dates set for the 1959 Torrance High School Variety Show. This year's show promises to be the best one yet. Headed by Mr. Jim Nichols of the music department, the show will be called "The Four Star Spectacular." Ken Robertson, who believed in a clean cam-

Frank Corsentino, and Danny Fulton serve as masters of ceremonies, while Diana Cook is to be the mistress of ceremonies. All of the talent of Torrance High is being assembled for the show, so it isn't one to miss.

IF YOU'VE been near the campus this week, you're sure to have heard "Clean campus, clean campus, keep our campus clean."

Yes, it's a campaign for a clean campus, and a good one, too. Monday, an aud call was held as part of the campaign, and featured in it was one of our teachers as Freddy Faculty who believed in a clean cam-

Address Incorrect In HERALD Story

In a recent issue of the HERALD, the address of Donald Colclasure, 18, one of the adults arrested in a series of arrests for narcotics violations, was listed incorrectly as 1511 W. 214th St. The correct address is 1511 W. 204th St.

Neil Doherty, who lives at the 214th St. address, was not connected with the case, he assured the HERALD.

The HERALD is happy to make this correction at Mr. Doherty's request.

A movie, "Mike Leaves His Mark," was also shown. The campaign has made a difference on the campus.

Localite Named Chairman Of Poetry Contest

Mrs. Stella Isenhower Flewelling, 1314 Elm Ave., has been named chairman of the annual poetry contest to be conducted throughout the state this spring by the California Federation of Chaparral Poets.

Deadline on entries by adult contestants is April 1. Cash awards will be presented at the 20th annual convention of the federation to be held at the Alexandria Hotel in Los Angeles, May 9.

Categories open to the general public are sonnets, humerous and light verse (12 line limit), and events in world history (24 line limit).

Persons desiring to enter poems in these categories are asked to send three anonymous typewritten copies of each entry together with a sealed envelope identifying the poem and author to Mrs. Flewelling.

The contest is limited to original poems which have never been published, submitted elsewhere, or awarded any prizes. Contestants are required to be residents of California.

Ash Wednesday Theme Revealed
