Manuscripters To Hear Talk By Joe Brennan

Novelist Joe Brennan of Playa del Rey will tell Southwest Manuscripters how to write and sell book and magazine fiction at a meeting to be held tomorrow at 8 p.m. at Clark Stadium, 861 Valley Drive, Hermosa Beach. Brennan is the author of five novels: "Call of the Tide," "Proud Whaling Man," "Tuna Clipper Challenge," "Heart of the Sea," and "A Man Grows Tall" written under the pen-name Steve Lomas. He has also written more than 350 magazine stories.

An accomplished sportsman as well as a prolific writer, Brennan enjoys fishing, hunting and skin-diving, hobbies which provide him with numerous ideas for his adventure stories, according to Program Chairman Betty Rink, who will present the speaker.

Southwest Manuscripters meets the third Friday of the month at Clark Stadium and is open to both beginning and professional writers, according to Ralph Scholl, president. He invited interested writers to attend the meetings and coffee hour following. Beryl Cook, secretary, will provide further information at Frontier 48826 or 22897.

APPROVED PLANS
 Plans and specifications for installation of traffic control signals at the intersection of Lomita Blvd. and Eshelman Ave., Lomita, to be completed by April 15, were approved this week by Supervisor Burton W. Chace.

In an effort to promote safer driving and to reduce traffic accidents, the Pep Boys Auto Supply stores today announced their 7th Annual Traffic Safety Essay Competition. First prize is a four year engineering scholarship to any California state college or university. Entry blanks are available for graduating seniors from senior high school class counselors and driver training teachers, according to Murray Rosenfeld, Pep Boys general manager.

Trophies and $50 savings bonds will be awarded to the authors of the three best essays. The scholarship winner to be chosen from these three students on the basis of scholastic standing, entrance examination, good citizenship, and essay—will receive tuition, books and supplies.

Essays will be judged by representatives of the National Safety Council, California Highway Patrol, Institute of Transportation and Traffic Engineering of UCLA and a Los Angeles Traffic Court Judge.

Deadline of entries is March 3.
