

Heart Fund Drive Slated For Today

Heart Sunday volunteers in the Torrance and Harbor City-Lomita area will join with thousands of others throughout the nation today in calling on their neighbors to leave heart fund education literature and receive donations for the 1959 Heart Fund.

Leaders among the Heart volunteer in this area are Mrs. Stanton Swafford of Portuguese Bend, regional Heart Sunday chairman; eight Torrance division chairmen for the residential campaign; and two chairmen for the Lomita-Harbor City area.

Assisting Mrs. Swafford as Torrance Heart Sunday chairmen are: Mrs. Shirley Leetz, 23820 Park St.; Mrs. Belva Brase, 2435 Border Ave.; Mrs. Angeline Disario, 1020 Beech St.; Mrs. Anne Collins, 17025 Crenshaw Blvd.; Mrs. Dorothy Perkins, 17727 Atkinson Ave.; Mrs. Glenda Adams, 4722 Jacques St.; Mrs. Frances Withrow, 22536 Ladeene Ave.; and Mrs. Stewart Cooke, 1547 West 221st Street.

Serving as Heart Sunday division chairman in Harbor City is Mrs. Mildred Taylor of 25517 President St.; and the Lomita area division chairman is Mrs. Ada Andersen of 2358-246th St. Supporting Mrs. Taylor in the Harbor City collection are Mrs. J. K. Diem, 1636 266th St., and Mrs. Margaret Ponce, 1120 - 255th St.

Mrs. Swafford expressed confidence in receiving liberal support from the residents of the Torrance-Lomita area during today's neighborhood collections. She said the public is now aware of the great strides made during the last ten years in developing new techniques in heart surgery, new methods of diagnosis and new drugs which are bringing relief and hope to heart disease sufferers.

Fabric Show At Broadway

Of interest to all home dress-makers is the Fabric Festival Fashion Show being presented in the Fabric Department of the Broadway De Amo on Tuesday, Feb. 24, at 1 p. m. and 2 p. m.

Models will show dresses and coats in the new Spring colors and including beautiful oriental prints, silks, cottons, and ease-of-care fabrics. Patterns from McCall's feature the latest styles, with several designed by French Couturiers, such as Pierra Cardin.

Miss Eve Hunter, of the McCall Corp., will commentate the show.

Circle Plans Luncheon

A "Luncheon is Served" event has been planned for March 4, at the Alondra Park Methodist Church, according to an announcement by Mrs. Frank Gist, chairman of the Circle in charge of arrangements.

All friends and neighbors of the Church are invited to attend and to enjoy the special treats to be served at the luncheon. In addition, there will be a short discussion on nutrition and recipes, and many door prizes will be distributed to the guests. Child care has been provided, and children will be served juice and crackers to supplement the sack lunches they will be bringing from home.

Proceeds from this project will help further the work of the Woman's Society of the Church. Tickets may be purchased in advance from Mrs. Gist or any member of her Circle.

Canada Guest

Arriving Thursday evening from Vancouver, Canada was Mrs. Pietje Kamstra who will spend three weeks here with her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Boonstra, 3833 Spencer St.

Junior Club Makes Plans At Meeting

Mrs. J. G. Louvier, president, announced that Mrs. Robert Davis would represent the Torrance Junior Woman's club in the Vogue Sewing contest Marina District, CFWC, to be held in Santa Monica Monday. This announcement was made at the club's business meeting Feb. 11.

Mrs. John M. Stokley, Drama chairman, asked that all members interested in the club play to be presented in April to contact her.

Straw ballots were distributed to the members and the nominating committee was selected. Serving are Mmes Barton A. Tatum, Lee E. Allen and John A. Hall; alternates are: Mmes Don Carlson, D. E. Moore, and Russell M. Clawson. Election of officers will be held March 11.

Mrs. John K. Mallory, third vice president, announced a ways and means spaghetti luncheon to be held at the Civic Auditorium on Thursday March 5 from 11 a. m. to 2 p. m. Profits from the luncheon will go toward the club philanthropy.

The co-ordinators of the Torrance Woman's Club, Mmes W. O. Clausing and A. F. R. Ewalt attended the meeting and invited all members to attend the party to be given by the co-ordinators on Wednesday Feb. 25 at the clubhouse. The theme of the party will be "The Roaring Twenties," all members were urged to come in costume.

Hostess for the evening was Mrs. James F. Wilkes. Assisting here were Mmes: John K. Mallory, Don T. McCalman, Jean Montange and Maurice A. Hatben.

Club's Card Party Feb. 27

Torrance Woman's club will stage its annual benefit card party on Feb. 27 at the clubhouse, 1422 Encragia Ave. A dessert luncheon will be served at 12:30.

The afternoon hours will be spent playing bridge, canasta and pinocle.

Mrs. R. E. Moffitt is chairman in charge of the party. Reservations may be made by calling her.

CDA Court to Hear Speaker

Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters, will meet Monday evening at 8 p. m. at the Nativity parish hall to hear Rev. Fran Brannigan, pastor of St. Andrew's Russian Church in El Segundo. Father Brannigan will speak on the "History of the Byzantine Rite."

Anyone interested in hearing the talk is invited to attend. There is no admission charge.

Tea and coffee will be served by Mrs. James Fornelli and her committee, Mmes. James Carlin, William A. Davies, and Richard Olson.

Rev. Brannigan will be presented by Mrs. Richard Ban, program chairman.
