DELIVER CHECK . . . A. L. Thomas, Harbor General Hospital administrator, receives a bank draft for $5000 from Mrs. W. R. Bergmann, Broadway Del Amo champagne party chairman. Mrs. J. G. Louvier, Junior Woman's Club chairman; Dr. L. A. West, hospital's medical director; and William Belding, manager of the new Broadway store, witness the event. Money was raised from admission donations at the gala preview party held in the Del Amo store February 15 and will be used to buy needed equipment for the hospital. (Herald Photo)

ZANY SHOWMEN . . . Three of the less inhibited members of Torrance Elks Lodge 1948 preview what the public can expect in the way of entertainment tonight, Friday, and Saturday nights as the lodge presents "Elks-A-Poppin'" at the Torrance High Auditorium beginning at 8. Promoters of the show promise "150 beautiful men and women," plus specialty acts will be featured in the two hour show. Tickets may be obtained from any member of the Torrance Elks or at the door on any of the three nights. Proceeds will be used for the organizations charity programs.

'Career' Set for Four-Week Run

Opening Friday, March 6, at 8:30 p.m., James Lee's new play "Career" is slated for a four-week run at the Hermosa Pier Playhouse. Under the direction of Val Dufour of New York and Hollywood, the cast combines the best talents of both Hollywood and the South Bay area.

Collin Carey, who has such plays to his credit as "Cherry Orchard," "Thieves Carnival," and "Beyond the Horizon," will play the lead role of Sam Lawson.

Kathy Reed, who has been seen in such movies as "Ask Any Girl," "High School Confidential" and "Beat Generation," will play Sharon Kensington. Miss Reed's flair for comedy has brought her back again and again to such television shows as "Ozzie and Harriet," "The Steve Allen Show," "The Milton Berle Show," and secured for her the feminine lead in a brand new series called "Dear Mom, Dear Dad."

EVE DEMETRIC, who plays the wife of Sam Lawson, has played on "Matinge Theatre," "Paul Coates File," in "Detective Story," and "Country Girl."

Dick Valentine, who came to Hollywood via the Yale Drama

ANOTHER FAMILY who enjoy the warm friendly atmosphere of BBQ Pete are Edward and Elaine Oldham and their young daughter, Judy Lynne, age 2½. The Oldhams have lived in the Los Angeles County for many years (almost natives) and are settled in Lawndale. Edward works in Los Angeles for the Nethercutt Laboratories as foreman of the warehouse and when he is off work his favorite pastime is bowling. The Oldhams attend the First Baptist Church of Santa Monica. When asked about barbecued food, Edward stated: "We have been patronizing BBQ Pete for the last 2½ years and find the food and service the best in the Bay Area."
