

Elk's Extravaganza On Stage Tonight

Torrance Elks club and the Ladies of the Elks are breaking into show "biz" with the presentation of an extravaganza entitled "Elks-a-Poppin'." The variety show, which has been in rehearsal for the past several weeks will be on stage at the Torrance High school this evening, Friday and Saturday evenings with curtain at 8 p.m.

The two hour revue in which 150 men and women are participating will run the gamut of sketches, songs, dances and musical productions.

Proceeds from the event will go to the Elks many charities, chiefly the cerebral palsy foundation.

Talents from the entire area will be seen in this production, according to Roger Holmes, Exalted Ruler. Randy La Ferr is directing the show with emphasis on comedy, music and dancing.

All members of the Elks and the Ladies auxiliary are selling tickets. Tickets may also be obtained at the door and children under 12 will be admitted free.

ELKS-A-POPPIN' . . . Businessmen as chorus girls, comedy sketches and fantastic dances will be the lineup this evening when the Elks Lodge and its ladies stage their first musical revue here. An invitation is being extended by Mrs. Louise Jewell, left, and Mrs. Sue Wood. Proceeds will go to the lodges' charity pledge. Tickets may be obtained from members or at the door at the Torrance High school auditorium.

Girls League Installs Panel

Girls' League of South High school installed its new officers last Thursday at the school.

Installed in a colorful ceremony were Judi Motoyasu, president; Barbara Bishop, vice president; Marian Daniels, secretary; Charlene Hackbush, corresponding secretary; Lynn Gish, treasurer; Joelyn Ferrell, historian-reporter; Pat Kobzev, junior class representative; Linda Waterman, sophomore class; McKee Terry, freshman; and Joelyn Ferrell, GAA president.

A heart, symbolizing the heart of the Girls' League, was used in the ceremony. Judi Motoyasu, president, presented Mariam Daniels, outgoing president, with a gavel. Mrs. Dean, sponsor; Miss Rous and Mrs. Sumner were given orchid corsages of appreciation.

After the installation the girls were taken to the Jump'n Jack restaurant for lunch.

Glendale Trip

Mrs. Hazel Ward, 1625 Beech Ave., has returned from a 10-day visit in Glendale, where she was the guest of Mrs. Molly Osborne.

St. Pat Dance Set March 14

Men and Women Councils of the St. Philomena parish will entertain at a St. Patrick dance on March 14 at 8 p.m. at the school hall, 21900 S. Main St. An orchestra will furnish the dance music and there will be door prizes and refreshments.

Decorating for the dance will be done by Mmes. Helen Long, Kay Clemens and Celia Ferrar. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Set Dates For Fiesta

The dates of April 18 and 19 have been selected for the first annual Fiesta to be given by Bishop Montgomery High School.

Rev. Michael J. McNulty, principal, has announced that Mrs. Elles Cook is chairman for the Mother's Department, and James Ebben, chairman for the Father's Department.

It is hoped that this two-day event will be successful and proceeds will be used for athletic equipment, the library and administrative purposes.

Dance Guests

Mr. and Mrs. William Crooker had as their guests for the Valentine Ball, Drs. and Mmes Gene Kaufman, and John Tippin; and Messrs. and Mmes Thomas Edmunds, Loren Sorrenson, J. A. Eisenbrandt, and Richard Long. Mr. Thomas won the first Champagne prize of the evening.
