

Janice Dudley Takes Honors In Speech Contest

Janice Dudley of North High School was chosen to represent Torrance in state finals of the "My True Security" contest sponsored recently by the Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce. Charlotte Percy and Sally Mason, both of Torrance High, were judged runners-up. Also competing in the local finals were Jacqueline Rupe and Charles Fuzak of North High and Noni Johnson of Torrance High.

Judges in the national essay and speech contest were Bob White, past president, Torrance Toastmasters; Von Hershey, South High drama coach; and Frank Gorbet, past president, Torrance Toastmasters.

JANICE'S entry will go into district competition Saturday at the Inglewood Country Club, preliminary to entering the state competition. Winner of the state competition will be sent to Washington, D. C. in July to participate in national finals and be eligible for one of three financial scholarships.

Thespians To Present One Act Plays

Following a concerted four weeks of rehearsals, the El Camino Thespian Club will present two one-act plays by Lewis Carlinio and a curtain raiser by William K. Landon in the Campus Theatre Feb. 27 and 28.

Holding down the number one spot on the program of one-acts will be "The Brick and the Rose" directed by Gary Paget, which was given its first El Camino performance last summer under the direction of the author, an ECC alumnus. Included in the cast are: Charles Turner, Parker Herriot, Natelle Lamkin, Gary Shaffer, Michael B. Lauman, Allen Bourhenne, and Pagett, all from the original production. Others in the play are Carmelita Mann, Jacque Oliver, and Michael Hoctor.

Accompanying "Brick" will be the premier performances of "Junkyard" by Carlinio and a curtain raiser entitled "Many A Tale of Woe" by Landon, an El Camino student.

Appearing in the former are K. Lyne O'Dell, Sandra Yates, Charles Cox, James Packard and George Spelvin. Miss Lamkin is director, and Carlinio will supervise the productions. The cast of Landon's opus, under his own direction, are Miss Lamkin, K. Lyne O'Dell, and Allen Bourhenne.
