Boy Scout Troop 315

Boy Scout Troop No. 315, sponsored by Moose Lodge No. 785, held its annual trip to Snow Valley the weekend of Feb. 14.

Upon their arrival, the 32 Scouts and 10 adults found four feet of snow. Sledding and snowball fights highlighted the weekend.

Adults accompanying the Scouts were: Leon Carpenter, Joe-Scirica, Lee Polick, Mike Rogow, H. C. Shattock, Pete Corey, Norm Ricker, S. C. Williams, Don Bose, and Ted Whisman. Harvey Cassen has been named new institutional representative for the group.

Boy Scout Troop 219

Boy Scout Troop 219, originally chartered in 1924, and now sponsored by the Torrance Kiwanis Club, is undergoing reorganization.

The charter has been moved from the old Scout Hall to McCmaster Park in North Torrance. A chartering ceremony will be carried out at the Kiwanis Club's regular meeting Monday night, March 2.

Hal Laudeman, district scout area commissioner, will be present to turn the charter over to Dr. Allen E. Hofferber, institutional representative for the Kiwanis Club.

Also present that night will be Walt Keberlein, chairman of the troop committee, and Taylor Marsh, scoutmaster. The troop is rechartering with a total of 20 boys.

Applications are being accepted to fill the remaining 12 places in the patrol organization. No boy will be taken into the troop unless his father accompanies him on one overnight camping trip. The next camp out will be on Feb. 28, when the boys go to Firestone Scout Reservation in the Brea Canyon area. This camp out period will feature a five mile hike to qualify some of the boys for their advancement requirements.

Brownie Troop 25

A family pot luck dinner was enjoyed by Brownie Troop 25 at Higgins Brickyard recently. Brownies who attended were: Diane Campbell, Shelly Clark, Donna Cochran, Tamara Goddard, Vicki Garrison, Pylis Nation, Carol Ogren, Irene Shinoda, Cindy Tolson, Maxine Warne, and their families.

Ronnie Campbell played the accordion for musical games.

Mrs. Leon Warne and Mrs. R. V. Warde, leaders, assisted the girls in making patriotic place mats for the tables. Brownie Troop 25 is sponsored by Fern-Greenwood PTA.

SCHOLARS NOTED

William Richard Lee and Gloria Ruth Pucher, Torrance freshmen at the University of California at Berkeley, have been named by the university committee on undergraduate scholarships to receive "honors at entrance" certificates for outstanding high school scholarship records.
