

District Spring Garden Conclave Here March 11

Marina District 18, California Federation of Women's Clubs, will hold its Spring Garden conference on Wednesday, March 11, at the Torrance Woman's club. Mrs. John Thuss, district Garden chairman, announced that 23 clubs will gather here. They will make the table arrangements for the luncheon. These arrangements will be judged and ribbons awarded to the winners.

Mrs. E. E. Mitchell, state garden chairman, will be the morning speaker. Colored slides of the District Flower show will be shown by Mrs. Carlton C. Osgood.

Luncheon will be served at 12 noon and at 1 p.m. the conference will have as its speaker, Gordon Baker Lloyd, lecturer, writer and television garden expert.

In 1946, Lloyd launched the first gardening show on television and it is now the oldest and most unique show of its kind. The show originates live from an actual garden. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd are both ardent gardeners working in two gardens of their own plus a TV garden that is on their

Sunday telecasts. The Garden Diary, a monthly reference written by Lloyd, is based on his own surveys and techniques found practical in his gardening activities.

Two Showers

A double surprise stork shower was held in the home of Mrs. Walter Stewart, president of 188th Street School PTA, for two of her board members, Mrs. R. Dean Bryan, secretary, and Mrs. Norman Miller, Newslette chairman.

A variety of games were played and refreshments served. The cakes, done by Mrs. Bill Thrower, were decorated as cradles. Others attending included Mmes. Donald Dittman, Herman Eisenbeiss, Frank Garst, Bill Hoffman, Niels Iversen, Jimmy Pearcey, Joseph Hoss, Robert Adams, J. T. Evans, Jr., Ward Grantham, Merrill Lindley, Hugh Allen and Paul Tobey.

Attend College Founders Day

Rev. and Mrs. H. M. Sippel and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Foster will attend the Founders' Day banquet for Chapman college Friday at the Disneyland Hotel. Mr. Foster is chairman of the board of the First Christian church, which is sending the representatives. Proceeds go to the Chapman college scholarship fund.

In Fresno

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Richards, 1605 Beech, spent on Friday until Monday in Fresno where they were guests of Mr. Richards' daughter, Mrs. Bert Coe.

Colorful Fashions, Food To Feature WSCS Affair

"Around the World in 80 Minutes" is the theme of the fashion show and luncheon to be sponsored by the WSCS of the Walteria Methodist Church Saturday March 7 at the church. A smorgasbord luncheon, including dishes from 10 countries, will be served at 1 p.m. After the luncheon, the latest in fashions for the ladies, teen agers and small fry will be modeled along with costumes from other countries. Mrs. Glenn Maxwell is taking reservations and it has been announced that tickets will not be available at the door.

Dr. W. Miller To Address AP Alumnae

Wendell L. Miller, D.D., will be the guest speaker at the meeting of South Bay Alumnae of Alpha Phi at its March 11 meeting, according to Mrs. James T. Walsh, program chairman.

Dr. Miller travels extensively in Europe each year introducing his clientele to the local culture and customs of each country while gathering more pictures and material for future lectures. Each year he goes behind the Iron Curtain to visit both Russia and satellite countries for photographs and interviews.

The group will meet at the home of Mrs. John Leeper, 3825 Via Palomino, Palos Verdes at 7:45 p.m. with Mrs. Wilard Renn and Mrs. Richard Fyhr as co-hostesses.

Alpha Phi alumnae in the South Bay area interested in affiliating may call Mrs. Renn or Mrs. Fyhr.

At the February meeting Mrs. Dewey French of Torrance was named chairman of the May alumnae social. The group also welcomed Mrs. Donald W. Burns, Inglewood, from Beta Chi, Bucknell University.

Mrs. Marion Booth will serve as narrator for the show. Modeling women's fashions will be Carol Allison, Rae Maxwell, Adelaide Daniels, Jeri Cunningham, Nancy Taylor and Nancy McNeil.

Teen-agers showing the new styles will be Linda Anderson, Cheryl Chaudano, Earline Doage, Sandy Anderson and Sandy Ford.

Dorothy Matthews will narrate the small fry fashion show with Stephanie Allison and David Allison, modeling.

Julie and Juliana Anderson will model a Japanese costume; Carol Hertzog, an underwater world outfit; and Yvonne Wagner will model a Dutch costume.

The international flavor will spark the afternoon's program with Rita Hancock doing a Nicaraguan dance and Kathy Brown and Arlene Matsui performing a Japanese dance. A Scottish dance will be done by Faye Muraski, Phyllis Muraski, and Donald Fiveash with Mr. Fiveash playing the bagpipes. Yvonne Wagner will close the program with Boeren Dans.

WORLD FASHIONS . . . Top fashions from the USA as well as those of other countries are on the lineup for the fashion parade Saturday to be staged by the WSCS of the Walteria Methodist Church. Taking part in this exciting show are, from left, Mmes. James McNeil and Mrs. Lloyd Daniels, models, Mrs. David Matthews, who will narrate the children's fashion show, and Mrs. Elmer Doage, committee member.

Ann Landers

(Continued from Page 8) you're "nice girls" and that you've never been in any trouble. I suggest you listen to your parents and knock off the evening strolls while you can still make these statements.

Fifteen-year-old girls belong at home after dinner. The social contacts you'll make "looking in store windows" and hanging around drugstores can't be much good. If you three value your reputations, stay off the streets and don't cultivate sidewalk friendships.

Dear Ann: What do you do when you're in love with a man you can't possibly have? I'm 23, not bad to look at, and can get plenty of dates. Follows my own age bore me silly. It's always my rotten luck to fall for a man who is married. Right now I'm head over heels in love with my boss, and I don't stand a chance. He's married and has made it perfectly plain he intends to stay that way.

I've been in this same spot at least five times since I got out of high school. Why is it I keep running into these blank walls and blind alleys? Do I need a wig-picker or just a swift kick in the bustle? Please help me.—MARDI

Dear Mardi: People who repeatedly get themselves into situations they know will be painful and punishing MAY need a wig-picker.

If, however, married men attract you because they offer more of a challenge—and are safe bets not to press matrimony—I advise you to grow up. The toy which is just out of reach is always the one the baby finds most attractive. After he gets it, it means nothing.

Are you tempted to smoke because the crowd does? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' new booklet, "Fighting Smoking," enclosing with your request 10 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope. (Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problem. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.) Copyright, 1958, Field Enterprises, Inc.

Junior Club On TV Show

Several members of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club and their friends attended the TV show "It Could Be You" on Tuesday Feb. 10 in Hollywood.

Mrs. Joseph Boylan participated in the "lucky number" game and received 40 yards of carpeting. David Rose, the musical composer - conductor surprised Mrs. James Van Dyck with an electric train for her five children and a portable dishwasher to help her out in the kitchen. Mrs. Joseph H. Merrill received a diamond watch.

During the highlight of the show, the reunion quiz, Mrs. Charles Briner was reunited with her sister Mrs. Victor Grudzinski from Michigan. Mrs. Briner had not seen her sister for eleven years.

Other members appearing on the show and receiving gifts were Mmes. Kenneth Boulter, W. H. Gardner, J. G. Louvier and John A. Hall.

The Torrance Club received many gifts for attending the show, among these were 2 large wall decorator clocks and an electric fry pan. These gifts will be used for future door prizes.
