Fire Victims Sue Owners Of Apartment

In a complaint filed last week, owners of an apartment building which was gutted by fire the day after Christmas were sued for a total of $108,329 by two women who suffered separate damages in the fire.

Suing for damages of $6329 to compensate for the alleged loss of furniture and personal property was Mrs. Mary Watwood, who resided at the time of the fire at the apartment building located at 1557 W. 203rd St.

Mrs. Ethel Combs, whose husband, Homer Combs, perished in the blaze, is asking $102,000 in damages. In a suit filed on her behalf by Attorneys Boris S. Wooley and Albert Ison, she lists damages as $2000 for expenses incurred in connection with the funeral; $50,000 for loss of future earnings by the deceased; and $50,000 for loss of the "services, comfort, and society" of a husband.

Named as defendants in the joint suit are Peter Boy, Jess Boy and several John Does, owners, managers, and operators of the apartment building.

HAT'S OFF . . . Indicates Bill Creighton, owner of Creighton Imported Cars, Hermosa Beach, as he adjusts the sporty chapeau covering the blond locks of shapely Sharon Walton. Oh, yes, that's a Renault in the background. It'll be on display along with 50 other foreign cars when South Bay Center, 174th St. and Hawthorne Blvd., presents Fashions 59, a special exhibit of imported cars and two production fashion spectacles March 9 through March 14. The fashion shows will be presented March 12 and 13 at 2 p.m.

Torrance Co-op Nursery School Dads Take Over

Torrance Nursery School Milton Barter, the program is sponsored by Torrance Evening Adult High School. Ordinarily the fathers' activities are confined to three hours per month workshop on improvement of the school facilities. Persons interested in the program are asked to contact Mrs. Rodney Mills at FA 8-4511 or Mrs. Dewey French at FI 4-3988.

Activities supervised by the fathers included finger painting, dough play, hammer and nail construction, block building, serving juice and crackers, story telling, and a rhythm session with piano accompaniment.

Under the direction of Mrs. BABY CARE CLASS SET The next series of free expectant mothers' classes will begin at the Torrance Health Center, 2300 Carson St., Thursday, March 12 at 1:00 p.m., according to Dr. B. A. Kogan, district health officer for the County Health Department. Mrs. Aurora Martinez, public health nurse, will continue as instructor.
