

Unique Staging To Be Featured In Play 'Career'

A unique staging device in which scenes blend together with the fluidity of motion picture technique will be unveiled Friday night at the Hermosa Pier Playhouse when the play "Career" opens its four-week run.

Responsibility for organizing the unusual lighting and sound effects goes to Don Stubbs, producer and director in his own right. The staging will be carried out by Bob Johnston of Torrance, Don Redmond of Manhattan Beach, and Eve Raber of Hermosa Beach, who also act in the play. Lighting effects will be handled by Charles Sutton; and sound effects by Geno Conehan.

Torrance students will be among more than 400 students from schools in Los Angeles, Orange, San Bernardino and Riverside counties expected to take part. They will be accompanied by their journalism advisors.

The program will begin at noon March 25 with registration at the Long Beach Naval Base, followed by a tour of the base and movies that night. The aspiring reporters will sleep in a barracks and go aboard the cruiser Toledo and

Students to Visit Navy

The third annual "Day in the Navy" for high school journalists will be staged March 25-26.

DESTROYERS will engage in anti-submarine warfare throughout the day and the cruiser will demonstrate its firepower as well as its role as a guided missile carrier. In addition it will refuel a destroyer while under way.

Sponsor of the "Day in the Navy" is Public Relations Co. 11-2 of the Naval Reserve.

Authors of the best published and unpublished stories written about the two-day program for a high school newspaper will be given prizes and the school scoring the most

Great Western Leases South Bay Property

Preparatory to opening a new South Bay branch of Great Western Savings and Loan Assn., John F. Marten, president, this week signed a lease on a property located at points will be awarded the Admiral's Trophy, donated by Rear Adm. Charles C. Hartman, commandant of the 11th Naval District.

16818 Hawthorne Blvd., just north of the South Bay Shopping Center near the intersection of Redondo Beach Blvd.

Furnishing and decorating of the 50 by 75 foot facility will begin immediately, according to Marten.

Concurrently with signing of the lease, Marten announced appointment of C. Palmer Briggs, manager of the Lakewood branch, as manager of the new branch. A Torrance resident and graduate of Union University of Jackson, Tenn., Briggs is a veteran in the financial field, having served in Los Angeles banking circles prior to joining Great Western four years ago.

LEASE PROPERTY . . . Looking over the lease for a branch of the Great Western Savings and Loan Assn., to be located at 16818 Hawthorne Blvd., are Jack Marten, right, president, and C. Palmer Briggs, left, who will manage the new branch. The new facility is just north of the South Bay Shopping Center.

TUNING UP . . . Getting ready for their concert at 8 p.m. at the Torrance High School auditorium are these young musicians from elementary schools in the central area. Students from the central, north and south areas of Torrance will give separate concerts. Shown here are Director J. Merlyn Wilde, pianists Ruth Close and Beth Angonstine, and other members of the string ensemble. The north area concert will be on the same night at North High School.

STUDENTS TO PRESENT CONCERTS TOMORROW

Some 485 young musicians from Torrance elementary schools will show off their talents in three forthcoming separate concerts. North and central area students will perform tomorrow, while the south area concert will be next week.

Because of the ever-growing enrollment, three area concerts for north, central, and south Torrance are scheduled, instead of one district-wide concert as in past years.

The north area concert will be at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the North High gymnasium, with a 120-piece band and 70-piece orchestra taking part. Participating schools include Arlington, Casimir, Carr, Crenshaw, Edison, Hamilton, Magruder, Perry, and Yukon. Directors will be Sylvia Selley, Neil Short, Adrian Pascoe, and James Davidson.

March 13 in the South High gymnasium. A 110-piece band and 22-piece orchestra will join the South High Band and Festival Band. Directors will be Richard Dugar, David Sherman, Richard Radford, and Glenna Hawley. Schools represented will be Welteria, Hillside, Meadow Park, Seaside, Calle Mayor, Newton, Riviera, and Parkway.

Moose Lodge to Note Birthday

Torrance Moose lodge will celebrate the 53rd anniversary of the Loyal Order of Moose fraternity at a party and dance to be held Saturday night at the lodge hall, 1744 W. Carson St., and a pot-luck dinner Sunday afternoon, James McCune, lodge governor, announced this week.

Plans for a "Shamrock Ball" on Saturday, March 14, were also revealed by McCune. The dance, scheduled to coincide with the observance of St. Patrick's Day, is one of the lodge's outstanding annual social affairs. Mike Cicero is the dance committee chairman.

Sunday's pot-luck dinner is a joint adventure of the lodge and the Women of the Moose chapter. Mrs. Thomas Jenkins, senior regent of the chapter, will direct the dinner activities.

THE SOUTH area concert is tentatively scheduled for

Salvation Army Trucks to Service Area Daily Now

In a move designed to enable the Salvation Army to improve its service to their many friends in Torrance and vicinity, Major Arthur Carl, manager, announces that Salvation Army trucks will serve Torrance and Gardena daily instead of every other day as in the past.

MANY THOUSANDS of homeless and handicapped men pass through these rehabilitation centers each year. It is the purpose of the Salvation Army to bring about a complete restoration: mental, moral, spiritual and physical of each man. Large numbers of them testify to the benefit of helpful and worthy work.

This department of Salvation Army service never asks the public for money but maintains itself by receiving donations of used materials from the public. The repairing and restoring of these donated articles to usable condition provides work therapy for the men seeking aid and the sale of it through Salvation Army Thrift Shops provides the capital necessary to carry on the work.

Urgently needed at the present time are used clothing, shoes, bedding, dishes, electric appliances, furniture, toys, pictures, books and household articles of any description. A telephone call to FAirfax 8-1635 will bring a Red Shield truck promptly to home or office to pick up your donation. You will be happier knowing that articles you formerly discarded are now used in the restoration of your fellow men.
