

LOCAL PTA ACTIVITIES

FASHION TEA . . . Meadow Park PTA will sponsor a fashion tea at the school Wednesday March 11 from 2 to 3 p.m. Eighth grade girls will serve as hostesses. A preview of the show is being enjoyed here by the tea committee from left, Mmes. G. G. Anderson, Jack Choate, H. Allen Clowd, Neal C. Silance, and Richard B. Culligan as they watch Mrs. Billy C. Sloneker model. Mrs. Clowd and Mrs. Culligan are taking reservations or tickets may be secured at the door. Free baby sitting will be provided at the school.

Newton

Newton PTA celebrated Founder's Day with a skit entitled "Have Gavel Will Travel" and the presentation of the honorary life membership to Mrs. Henry Graef by Mrs. Lee Kendall.

The meeting was opened with the flag salute led by the fourth grade students. There was a short business meeting and the nominating committee for next year's officers was selected. Those chosen were Mmes. C. A. Fischer, D. DeArmitt, Robert Anderson, David Tanner and William Forrester.

Mrs. D. C. Robbins, the president, presented a gavel to Terry Kirkbride, president of the newly organized Student Congress.

The school band directed by Richard Radford played two selections and a violin solo was played by Cheryl Coleman. The skit, "Have Gavel Will Travel" depicted the organization of a PTA during the early days of the West. Those taking part were Webster Smith, principal, Mmes. J. Hurst, A. Seaver, Warren Post, E. La Motte, R. DeArmitt, Parke Meek, Bill McAnally, John Driessler, Robert Wright, J. E. Chedotte, C. A. Fischer, and William Forrester and Tom Backus. It was directed by Mrs. Donald Hauser and the musical accompaniment was played by Mrs. T. A. Pickering.

Mrs. John Holmes then introduced Mrs. Lee Kendall who presented the honorary life membership pin to Mrs. Henry Graef.

223rd Street

The program chairman for the 223rd Street School PTA, Mrs. Virgil Johnson, presented an interesting program commemorating Founder's Day at the February meeting held in the school cafeteria.

A skit was presented by the 223rd St. School board members under the direction of Mrs. Johnson. The highlight of the program was the presentation of the Honorary Life Membership to Donald Heath, a former teacher, who is now teaching at South Shores School. The presentation was made by Honorary Life Membership chairman, Mrs. Edward Kollmeier.

Sepulveda

Sepulveda held its Founder's Day program Feb. 19 honoring its past presidents Mrs. Albert J. Yackle and Mrs. Ben Holden. A skit was presented by Mmes. Richard Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Daugherty, Mrs. Russell Mayer, Mrs. Cecil Paschall, Kindergarten teacher, M r s.

Hubert Bailey and Mrs. James Brunet. The skit was prepared by Mrs. Don Craemer. Brownie Troop 2372 led the flag salute under the direction of Mrs. Russell Mayer.

Robert Johnson spoke on the activities of the Indian-Y-Guides. Membership is open to all fathers and sons. Meetings are held twice monthly at members homes. All interested fathers and their sons should contact Mr. Johnson.

The nominating committee gave their report on its slate of officers for next year as follows: president, Mrs. Hubert Bailey; vice-presidents, Mrs. Robert H. Whitney, Mr. Robert R. Dexter, Mrs. Richard Gibson, Mrs. John Johnston, Mrs. Don Craemer, Mrs. Robert Ringe; recording secretary, Mrs. John Blair; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Russell Mayer; treasurer, Mrs. Kenneth Moe; auditor, Mr. Clark Merrill and historian, Mrs. Charles Gasci. Election of officers will be conducted at the March 19 association meeting at 8 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

Mrs. Paschall's Kindergarten room won the attendance award for the month of February.

Halldale

"Little Men and Little Women" is the topic chosen for the next meeting of Halldale PTA March 10 at 1:30 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Mrs. Anthony Bruck, Community Youth chairman, announced twelve youth groups, consisting of six Brownie troops, two Girl Scout troops and four Woodcraft Rangers and Rangerettes, will present the program. There are 200 boys and girls of Halldale community who are members of the troops. All are sponsored by Halldale PTA.

Den 5 of Cub Scout Troop 228C will lead the flag salute. Girl Scout Troop 2290 will present a skit directed by Mrs. Iris Myers. Woodcraft Rangers under the direction of Mrs. Mary Thornburg and Mrs. T. R. Kuhan will do "Council Fire."

Several troops will sing and give the Brownie Promise.

Everyone in the community is invited to attend.

Mrs. Frank Bowling, Jr., president, will announce the election of new officers for 1959-60.

Wood

Mrs. Hiro Muranaka and Mrs. Dana Houston were the recipients of honorary life memberships awarded by Howard Wood PTA at Thursday evening's meeting. These memberships are given to persons who serve the PTA and assist with youth groups and are selected by a committee.

Prior to their receiving the memberships, Mrs. Lee Polick, Honorary Life and Founder's Day chairman, presented a skit representing the progress and projects of Wood PTA which was established May 6, 1954. Previous presidents took part in the skit, which was narrated by Mr. Lee Polick.

Past presidents are Mmes. William Dickson, Paul Crossman, C. L. Strahm and Polick. PTA Mothersingers sang several selections and Cub Scout Troop 211C gave the opening ceremonies.

Mrs. Paul Braswell, president, conducted the business

South High Dessert Tea At La Venta

Neither fire nor water nor both combined could stop South High PTA for very long. Wednesday, March 11 from 1:30 to 3:20 p.m. is the new time scheduled for their annual dessert tea, which had to be canceled last month when fire destroyed the Polynesian Restaurant.

Beautiful LaVenta Inn in Palos Verdes will assume a Polynesian atmosphere for the enchantment of PTA members and friends.

As originally scheduled, Captain DeVere Baker will show some slides which were taken as the raft Lehi IV drifted to Hawaii last year. Captain Baker recently returned from Sacramento where he spoke before the State Legislature, and from a short lecture tour in Hawaii.

Authentic Polynesian songs and dances presented by The Kupuus (Sweethearts) will complete the afternoon's festivities. Hostesses will be Mmes. Robert Schrauben, John Hamilton, William Allen and Vernon Moyer. Mmes. Otto Willett, Lee Kendall, Fred Geisel and Donald Hauser will preside at the tea table.

Welcome Wagon

Welcome Wagon Club of Torrance will hold its monthly luncheon meeting at the Plush Horse Restaurant Wednesday March 11 at 12:30 p.m. All newcomers in the area are invited to attend. Mrs. Jos. A. Carter, 1645 Hickory Ave. is taking reservations.

Kansas Guests
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hawkins of Kansas City, Kans., arrived Friday to spend two weeks here with Mr. Hawkins' daughter, Mrs. Roy Sloan and family, 20946 Halldale Ave.

meeting and announced the Open House for April 6.

The Howard Wood PTA will be hosts on March 2 at a luncheon honoring the Minister of Information of Turkey.

Newton

Theme of the January meeting of the Newton PTA was "To Better Understand Our Fellow Man." This was highlighted by having as guest speakers students from the American Field Service program. The students were Per Svanevik from Denmark, Rose Ann Hathway from North High, Torrance and Pat Achenbach of Torrance High.

Each student gave a short talk about his impressions and experiences while being an exchange student. This was followed by a question and answer period.

The flag salute was led by pupils from the second grade. The third grade mothers were hostesses for the meeting.

The next board meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. David Tanner, 4256 Newton St.

Evelyn Carr

"Celebrity Night" was the theme for the annual Founders Day meeting of the Evelyn Carr PTA, which was held Tuesday, Feb. 24, in the Carr School cafeteria.

Following the flag ceremony by the Golden Bluebirds, the spotlight was on distinguished guests. Mrs. J. R. Allison introduced Mrs. Kenneth McVey, Council president, many unit presidents, and past presidents of Evelyn Carr PTA, Mrs. Eldon Morgan and Mrs. Roland Stamm.

Library Chairman Mrs. S. E. DeCamp reported on the library and Mrs. Albert Karr reported on the program to provide new trees for the school yard.

The upper grade glee club, under the direction of Mrs. Robert Steele, was well received with the singing of an interesting variety of songs.

A brief history of Founders Day, the birthday of PTA, was presented by Mrs. James Hunter.

The Honorary Life Membership chairman, Mrs. J. A. Jensen, announced there would be two honorary life awards made. Mr. John Miller and Mrs. J. R. Allison, last year's recipients, presented this year's awards to Mr. Roy Foster for interest in community activities, and Mrs. C. E. DeCamp for activities in Cub Scouts, Brownie Scouts, and the Evelyn Carr Library.

Mrs. T. E. Kelley, the first to be honored with a Life Membership Award at Carr School, presented a plaque to Richard Welte, principal. It will list the names of all past and future Honorary Life Members of the school, and will hang in the school cafeteria.

Richard Welte introduced his guests: Donald Duncan, past principal of Carr school, and Tony Barrata, past vice-principal of Carr school.

Life members of previous years were introduced. They were Mrs. T. E. Kelley, Mrs. Genevieve Shelton, Mrs. J. R. Allison, Mrs. Eldon Morgan, and Mr. John Miller.

Mrs. J. R. Allison called her executive board forward and presented them with gold ceramic pins in the shape of the traditional oak leaf.

The stage decorations and flower arrangements were done by Mrs. Albert Karr.

Coffee and cupcakes were served by the third grade room mothers.
