Martin Jack Wins Safety Economy Run

Teachers practice what they teach, judging by results of a contest for county driver education and training instructors Saturday, which was won by Martin Jack of 2435 Border Ave., department head at Leuzinger High School, Lawndale. Co-driver was Jack Townsend, Leuzinger instructor.

Neither driver made any errors on the 109 mile safety economy run, sponsored by the Los Angeles Driver Education Assn., and co-organized by General Petroleum Corp. and the Automobile Club of Southern California.

The winning car was a 1950 convertible which averaged 22.24 miles per gallon with a ton mileage of 57.83. Thirty-eight cars competed. Occupants of each vehicle included a driver, relief driver, and an observer who checked for errors.

Valley Jews Plan Annual 'Latke' Party

Centinela Valley Jewish Council will celebrate members' anniversaries at the group's annual "latke" (potato pancake) party Saturday at 8:30 p.m. at 418 Birch Ave., Hawthorne. Accompanying the latkes will be the traditional applesauce and sour cream.

An anniversary cake bearing the names of celebrants will also be served, according to Charles Vida, chairman. Donation will be $1.
