Swedish meatballs on St. Patrick's Day in a Norwegian lodge hall! This is the outline for the next project to be undertaken by the Bay Harbor Osteopathic Hospital Guild. ### . . . Ann Landers head whenever I pass her in the hall. I feel slimy and want to clear her name. How can I do it?—LOWEST FORM OF LIFE.

Dear Lowest—and you ARE just that! You can "clear her name" the same way you tried to tarnish it. Tell the guys you were lying and that you're sorry. The word will get back to her, and maybe she'll say "hello" when she sees you—which is more than you deserve.

Dear Ann Landers: My husband and I are in our middle 40's. Seven months ago he suggested I take in a roomer to help pay for some repairs on the house which cost over $1,000. He brought home a nice-looking man from work. The gentleman is a bachelor and pays $35 a month for the room.

My husband is a great one for lodge meetings. He is a Mason and is "going up the ladder," which means meetings three nights a week. The roomer has made romantic advances toward me in my husband's absence. I've been able to joke him out of it so far but to be honest I'm afraid I could go for him. If my husband knew he'd take this man's hide off.

How can I get rid of him without telling my husband the reason? He pays his rent on time and is very neat.—BUNDELE OF NERVES.

Dear Bundle: Tell your husband your home isn't the same since the roomer moved in. (No lie.) Explain you'd much rather have privacy than the extra money. And until the roomer moves, go visit friends on your husband's lodge nights.

If alcohol is robbing you or someone you love of health and dignity, send for ANN LANDERS' new booklet, "Help For The Alcoholic," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope. (Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.) Copyright 1958, Field Enterprises, Inc.

Hope Reed To Present Collection

The Broadway-Del Amo is presenting a fashion show of Hope Reed dresses in the Sportswear Dept. on Wednesday, March 18, at 12:30 p.m.

Miss Hope Reed will appear in person with her Spring Collection "High Style on a Small Budget," which features dresses priced at under fifteen dollars. She believes that women need more clothes these days than ever before because they are leading lives of such varied activity. Her designs, inspired by a group of blouses brought back from Paris, reflect that need, from the casual shirt-maker dresses to the dressier styles.

The fabrics are mainly of the easy-to-care-for type in a selection of delicate Spring colors, especially appealing to the women of Southern California. There will be a door prize of a Hope Reed dress after the show.

Miss Reed may be seen on Dorothy Gardner's Milady programs on KTLA, Channel 5, Monday, March 16, from 3:30 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.
