AWARDED CASH . . . Receiving a $5 cash award for turning in the largest number of new HERALD subscribers in March is "carrier of the month" Joe Cemore, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cemore of 1642 W. 214th St. He has won several prizes for enlarging his route in the past few months.

Geraghty to Chair Drive

J. Geraghty has been appointed Torrance area chairman for the annual Southern California Clean Up, Paint Up, Fix Up campaign in May, it was announced yesterday by Wilbur S. Johnson, general chairman.

Johnson said he will coordinate campaign activities in Torrance, Gardena, Hermosa Beach and Palos Verdes Estates.

Numerous local civic, service, cultural and youth groups are cooperating in the drive here. In addition to urging citizens participating in the Clean Up, Paint Up, Fix Up program, cooperating groups will undertake special projects during the month on behalf of deserving families and institutions.

Local campaign leaders and civic officials will attend a kickoff luncheon at 12 noon Tuesday at the Statler Hilton.

More than 1,000 representatives of various participating organizations in the County are expected to be in attendance to hear plans for the month-long drive.

California Bank's Net Earnings Up 19 Per Cent

California Bank's net operating earnings per share have shown an increase of 19 per cent over the same period last year, Frank L. King, president, announced today in a review of the bank's first quarter statement of earnings.

According to King, net operating earnings were $1.19 per share for the first three months of this year based on the 1,568,075 shares outstanding, as compared with $1.00 per share for the first quarter of last year.
