Cancer Costly, Claims Crusade C & I Chairman

Ryan Aeronautical Co., executitve W. H. Holmes, volunteer C&I chairman for the American Cancer Society Crusade in Torrance, today pointed out that the cost of cancer to the American economy during 1959 will amount to more than twelve and a half billion dollars in lost goods and services.

"Since the business community must bear the greatest part of this burden, it has the greatest self-interest in supporting the work of the American Cancer Society in finding a cure or control for cancer," Holmes stated.

"As my fellow crusaders and I talk to the Torrance businessmen during the next several weeks," Holmes continued, "we will tell them that 40 per cent of all new cases of cancer occur in the nation's labor force; that the most pressing financial problems brought to employers by their employees are those created by cancer; that a check with company doctors and nurses will reveal cancer as the health problem most often voiced by employees."

"I hope," Holmes said, "that the business leaders we talk to will include a large corporate gift with their own personal check, in recognition of the fact that the cost of Cancer to the business community will increase every year until a cure is found."

Four Local 'Crazy Hat' Entries Win

Four Torrance youngsters—two of whom are sisters—were first place winners in their age brackets in a crazy hat parade conducted at Alondra Park preceding the recent Easter Egg Hunts.

Winners, in the youngest group were Jeffrey Hendrick, 4, of 2116 Dalemead and Irene Chatelle, 4, of 3403 W. 190th.

Donna Wilson, 8, of 17022 Kornblum and her sister Pamela, 12, won in their age groups.

GOLDEN EGG winner at the egg hunts, sponsored by the Los Angeles County Department of Parks and Recreation, was Ronnie Lorri, 11, 3905 W. 181 St., Torrance.

Silver egg prizes went to: Chrissy Ridder, 3, 3736 W. 170 St., and Christine Needham, 10, 16710 Kornblum Ave.

Volunteers who worked on the Easter Egg Hunt, attended by over 1300 boys and girls, were: Dick Garner of the Kiwanis, Mabel McCulley of the Lawndale Monday Eves Junior Womans Club, Phyllis Heimer, Chris Barton, Marilynn Tetrick, Bill Tetrick, Gail Deschaine, Mary Binder, Tony Maes, and Maureen and Steven Rego.
