

ROBERT MUNCASTER

PV Architect Moves Office

... Moves Offices
Robert George Muncaster, architect, AIA of Palos Verdes Estates, announced this week the removal of his Malaga Cove architectural firm to the Palos Verdes Professional Building, 2564 Via Tejon, PVE. Muncaster is at present master site-planning a $175,000 12-acre park and recreation area for the city of Redondo Beach. On the drawing board for the Redondo Beach City Recreation Department is a gymnasium and multi-purpose recreation building which will include craft rooms, assembly hall, lounge and kitchen facilities. He is also responsible for the design of the new $180,000, 12,000 square foot medical building to be constructed in the Hollywood River section. Muncaster served in World War II as a Navy flier. His educational background includes Aero Engineering in the Alabama Polytechnic Institute and the University of California at Berkeley, where he received his A. B. and M. A. in architecture. He is also an active member of the American Institute of Architects, Torrance Chamber of Commerce, and Toastmasters.

Youth Week Ends Today

The Narbonne Avenue Southern Baptist church is observing Youth Week that will climax today. The young people of the church will teach the Sunday School classes, serve as workers in the training Union, work as ushers, and sing in the choir. They will have charge of the evening service. The special music will be a girls trio. Leading in the Youth Week will be Keith Coble as Youth Pastor, Mike Shipley, music director; Glynda Shirley, pianist; Tom Houston, Sunday School superintendent; and Glenn Aycock, training union director. This week is an annual event looked forward to by youth and old alike. The pastor, Robert A. Wells, will speak at both the 8:30 and 10:50 morning service on the subject, "God Speaks to You."

SWAPS STAKES CHAMP

Swaps is the all-time Hollywood Park stakes-winning champion with nine added money victories to his credit. During his three years of competition he won the Hollywood Gold Cup, The Californian, The Westerner, the Sunset, Argonaut, American and Inglewood Handicaps and the June Juvenile and Will Rogers Stakes.

TEMPORARILY SUSPENDED

The Wildlife Conservation Board has halted its angling access program until it can meet with the Small Craft Harbor Commission "to explore the programs of each agency."
