

Mental Health Society's To Be Topic For Tri-Delts

Taking note of May as National Mental Health Month South Bay Tri Delta alums will devote the major part of next Wednesday's luncheon meeting to a discussion of mentally retarded children and ways to aid them.

The meeting will be held at the El Segundo home of Mrs. George L. Braham who is currently engaged in aiding the California and United States boards of education in the retarded child survey. She will be speaker and leader of the discussion.

"Chief point of the project," said Mrs. Braham, "is to find how best the parents of retarded children can assist their offspring and help these youngsters adjust to everyday living problems."

Also on the business agenda of the pot luck patio luncheon will be further consolidation of plans for the Bay area Tri Delta's summer benefit to be held in mid-July. The benefit, open to the public, is a philanthropy of Delta Delta Delta which provides additional funds for equipment in the pediatric department at Harbor General hospital. The benefit bridge and canasta party will be the fourth annual fund raising event sponsored by the national fraternal women's organization in this area.

Attending from Torrance will be Mrs. Ronald Hok, 5128 Mindora Dr., chapter corresponding secretary; Mrs. Mark U. McKie, 439 Via Linda Vista, Hollywood Riviera, a member of the benefit committee.

Mrs. Edward B. Wilder, Rolling Hills Estates, president of the Tri Delta alumni chapter, will preside at Wednesday's meeting. Mrs. John E. Brennecke, Westfield, is in charge of luncheon arrangements.

Chairmen Named

Mrs. George Thompson who assumed the presidency of the Lomita Civic League in April, has announced the following appointments to chairmanships: Mrs. David E. Fay, sunshine; M. S. Goodwin, hospitality; Mrs. Bruce Schweitzer, ways and means, and Mrs. A. B. Trefethen, membership.

Society's Big Sale Tomorrow

Nativity Catholic Altar Society will hold its big semi-annual Rummage Sale tomorrow and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. in the Parish Hall, 1420 Cota Ave., Torrance.

Mmes. M. J. Boudreaux and F. H. Dihope, co-chairmen of the event, announce that there will be thousands of real bargains for thrifty shoppers and curiosity seekers.

On the tables and racks will be good, clean clothing for adults and children, also hats, purses, shoes, curtains, drapes, dishes, toys, lamps, pictures, appliances, knick-nacks, furniture, even a good table top stove.

Among those preparing to handle sales in the various departments are Mmes. Clarence Junior, F. J. McCarthy, Elles Cook, T. B. McLaughlin, Richard Oliver, Michael Catena, Russell Comon, J. E. Powers, H. W. Berning, W. O. Putnam, David Hughes, John Cherris and Regina Cunningham.

Contributions are still being accepted at the Parish Hall. Pick-up service may be arranged by calling Mrs. John L. Redding, 10521 S. Eastwood Ave., or Mrs. Corwin G. Dean, 1027 Acacia Ave., Torrance.

Stork Beats Baby Shower 'Deadline'

Mrs. William Kesselman (Sally Speck) broke her date with friends for a shower in her honor and kept her date with the stork last Friday afternoon at Torrance Hospital. The Kesselmans are elated over the arrival of their first child, a boy, who has been named Michael William.

But the friends who were left holding the bag, diaper bag that is, went right on with their party. Hostesses were Mrs. Edward Thayne and Mrs. Carl Dean. The party was given at the Jack Dean home, 22034 Ladean Ave. A green and yellow color theme was used and the centerpiece on the table was a small tree "blooming" with miniature storks and babies. Party favors were small bathtubs and babies and the napkins were decorated with baby saucers.

Grandmother, Mrs. Edward Kesselman, accepted the gifts for her new grandchild. Games were played, with prizes going to Mmes. Frank Fisher, Jr., Mervin Schwab, Chelcia Shelby, James Van Dyck, George Crabtree and Edward Kesselman.

Others attending the party were Mmes. Frank Lane, John King, Edna Moffitt, Grover Van Deventer, Donald Hein, Kenneth Kinnamon; Misses Betty Hope, Claudia King, Janie Moffitt and Jean Wilson.

Sending gifts were Mmes. Fred Hayes, Leonard Babcock and Donald Simpson.

Haldale PTA Carnival May 8

Top attraction at the Haldale PTA Carnival, Friday from 3 to 7 p.m. at Haldale Ave. school, is "Goo-Goo, The Magic Clown," who is currently playing at Moulin Rouge in Beverly Hills. "Goo-Goo" will give three shows during the afternoon.

Other attractions at the Carnival are plenty of games, a general store with Mrs. Richard Sabey in charge, food concessions with Mrs. W. L. Harvey in charge.

Mrs. Pete Moore and Mrs. W. H. Gilre will be the "Pick Pocket Clowns." Everyone is invited for an evening of fun and lots of goodies to eat.

Mrs. B. N. Kellan, second vice-president is in charge.

At Polynesian

Enjoying a pleasant dinner together at The Polynesian Restaurant in Torrance recently were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bush of the Hollywood Riviera and their guests, Miss Betty Jean Hess of Torrance, Bruce Fowler of Redondo and Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Clark of Torrance.

The new O'KEEFE & MERRITT Gas Range built to give you award standards.

mark of the finest
Gas ranges carrying the GOLD STAR Award guarantee the ultimate in modern automatic performance.

The new hallmark of excellence found on today's Gas ranges is the GOLD STAR Award. This Award means that the range bearing it has met 28 quality standards and brings to you the newest, most modern features to be had. The ranges that carry the GOLD STAR come from many manufacturers. It is not a brand name but a symbol of excellence that distinguishes superior ranges. See them at your Gas Range Dealer's or your Gas Company's showrooms.

Even most thermometers hesitate to order, turns oven off automatically!

Top-burner heat control: foods can't burn on this burner with a "Brain".

Rotary barbecue barbecue: indoors any time. No fuss, mess or smoke!

Other Gold Star features they include: automatic clock control, oven-ready lights, slower burners, even and broiler windows, radiant reflectors in broilers, built-in griddle, seamless ovens, one-piece range tops, chip-proof porcelain enamel finish.
