Pathfinders To Attend Lynwood Fair

Jack Moraine, 2233 W. 239 St., director of the local Pathfinder Club, announced today that 50 members and 10 leaders of the Torrance Seventh-day Adventist Church's Pathfinder Club will participate in a giant Southland-wide Pathfinder Fair with some 2,000 other youngsters Sunday in Lynwood.

Moraine said the event will start at 11 a.m. in the Adventists' campground auditorium at 4100 Imperial Highway, Lynwood. Morning activities will include the judging of booths, exhibits, and working demonstrations.

Afternoon activities will feature a massed march of more than 40 Pathfinder Clubs from Los Angeles, Santa Barbara, and Ventura counties, followed by a flag ceremony, drill demonstrations, contests, and presentation of trophies at 4 p.m.

Koger Named To Welfare Board of L.A.

Glenn Koger, chairman of the Welfare Federation Harbor Area Board, was re-elected Torrance community representative on the board of governors of the Welfare Federation of Los Angeles, at a 35th anniversary dinner meeting held at the Hollywood Palladium Tuesday.

Also serving as area representatives are Melvin E. Sparks of Torrance, Mrs. Donald Armstrong of Palos Verdes, George Bradbeer of Rolling Hills, Frede Kilstofte of Wilmington, and James W. Munson of Lomita.

Screenwriter To Address Area Writers

Southwest Manuscripters will hear Screenwriter Malvin Wald speak on writing for motion pictures at 8 p.m. Friday at Clark Stadium auditorium, 861 Valley Drive, Hermosa Beach.

Wald has been a screenwriter for the past 20 years, and in addition is a lecturer in the cinema department at the University of Southern California, a post he has held for the past 10 years.

Among Wald's screenplay credits are "The Naked City," an Academy Award nominee; "Man on Fire," Bing Crosby's latest film, and "Al Capone" starring Rod Steiger. Wald is also one of the authors of the new University of California Press book "TV and Screen Writing."

He will be introduced by Betty Rink, program chairman.

Southwest Manuscripters meets the third Friday of the month at Clark Stadium and is open to both beginning and professional writers, according to Ralph Scholl, president. A coffee hour follows each meeting with Hospitality Chairman Lula Messall in charge. Beryl Cook, secretary, will answer inquiries at FRontier 4-8896 or FRontier 4-8896.
