

JOIN WELCOME WAGON . . . Recently completing a Welcome Wagon training course in Pasadena were (from left) Mmes. J. E. Howard, Raymond Shore and Fred Whitecotton of Torrance, who will be serving the community as hostesses for the organization. They will be welcoming newcomers to the city, acquainting them with the community, helping them locate their church, and putting them in touch with clubs or other groups in which they might be interested. Mrs. Howard will inaugurate a new feature, calling on mothers of new babies, in the near future. (Herald photo)

Innocent Bystanders

PINS WINGS ON . . . Designated a Naval Aviator April 3 at the Naval Air Station, Corpus Christi, Tex., Navy Lt. (jg) Victor S. Gulliver, of Van Nuys, has his "Wings of Gold" pinned on by his wife, the former Miss Patricia Merole, of 23060 Doris Way.

Carson Square To Be Site of New Drug Store

Stacy Drugs, newest chain of Southern Calif. drug stores, will open its first drug store in Torrance in the near future, it was announced today by Marvin Dizack, president. Located at 126 E. Carson St., corner of Main St. and Carson Square, the drug store will occupy 10,000 square feet.

Featuring the latest in self-service devices, the store will be planned for the ultimate in cleanliness and easy-flowing traffic, according to Dizack. Included in its features will be an inviting color scheme, terrazzo floor, air conditioning, and soft music.

Described by Dizack as "the most fully equipped drug store in the west," Stacy's will house a complete photo department, sundries, confections, stationary, vitamins, and a prescription drug department; and will offer "the world's largest ice-cream cone."
