Mrs. William Luzan (left), of 1122 Faysmith Ave., and Mrs. Walter West, of 2034 Reynosa Drive, will head volunteers in a week-long Merchants Membership Drive June 1-6 for the non-sectarian City of Hope. Two Students Honored by Savings Assn.

Two seniors from Torrance High Schools this week received outstanding student awards in a statewide program sponsored by the California Savings and Loan League and locally by Southwest Savings & Loan Assn., and Marina Federal Savings & Loan Assn.

Winners of the cash awards were John Bentwood, Torrance High School, and Sonja Pesola, North High School.

Both students will participate in an essay contest Saturday in which they will vie for five $1000 scholarships.

A science and math major at Torrance High, John Bentwood is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bentwood of 1313 Greenwood Ave. Past class president and Student Body president, his activities have included: cheer leader, Tartar Knights, Boys' League, Student Court, California Scholarship Society, Varsity Club, Theopians, varsity tennis team, wrestling team; and acting in the Junior Class play and several one act plays. He plans to study engineering at college.

The daughter of Mrs. Laura Pesola, of 17030 Faysmith, Sonja Jean Ruth Pesola has majored in mathematics at North High School and plans to major in physical education at college, preparatory to a teaching career. Her high school activities have included Mariners, the Luther League, and the 'Teens.
