St. Catherine Labouré Church to Hold Carnival

St. Catherine Labouré Church, 3846 Redondo Beach Blvd., will hold its annual carnival Sunday, May 31. Proceeds will be used to augment funds for the completion of the rectory, it was announced by Jack Held, carnival chairman. A roast beef dinner will be served from 1 to 7 p.m., and rides and booths will remain open until 9 p.m.

Booths will include: a cake and candy booth, fancy work booth, white elephant booth, coke pitch, and baseball game booth. Kiddie rides and a ferris wheel will also be featured. The booths will be directed by members of The Holy Name Society, the Ladies Council, the Athletic Assn. and the parish Boy Scouts.

According to Mrs. Roy Stinchcomb, the menu for the roast beef dinner will feature beef, potatoes, vegetable, tossed green salad, coffee, and apple pie at $1.50 per adult and 75c per child.

Ticket chairman is John Fitzpatrick, with Mr. Edwin P. Clark, Jr., as co-chairman of tickets.

Installed

Sharon Brase, granddaughter of Mrs. Belva Brase of 2435 1/2 Border Ave., and formerly of this city, was installed this week as associated advisor of the Rainbow Girls in Orville, Washington.

LIONETTES INSTALLED . . . Pictured at an installation dinner party held Saturday evening, May 9, at the Palms Restaurant are newly elected Torrance Lionettes Mrs. M. C. Rupel, hairpuller; Mrs. A. E. Perkin, secretary; Mrs. John W. Wallace, president, and Mrs. John Lucas, vice president.

Palms Provides Setting For Dinner Installation

South Torrance Lionettes installed their new officers at a dinner party held at the Palms restaurant on Saturday evening, May 9.

Installed were Mrs. John Wallace, president; Mrs. John Lucas, vice president; Mrs. A. E. Perkins, secretary; Mrs. James Mechura, treasurer, and Mrs. M. C. Rupel, hairpuller. The new slate will take office July 1.

Current plans include a membership drive to be held next week, and extension of the charity program by which the club provides toys, clothing, and food for a needy Torrance family during the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons, and assisting the Lions in their forthcoming White Cane Drive and Fourth of July fireworks sale.

Among those who attended the dinner party were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Levy, Mr. and Mrs. David Tanner, Mr. and Mrs. George Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Trowbridge, Dr. and Mrs. Max Appleby, Mr. and Mrs. William Forrest, and Mr. and Mrs. John Wallace.

'Coffee for Chairmen' Set By Area YW

In preparation for the new program year of the Harbor Area YWCA, "Coffee for Chairmen" will be held at the headquarters building, 437 West Ninth St., San Pedro, Wednesday from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m.

Highlighting the annual training session geared to Area Board and local Branch Administrative committee members will be a talk by Mrs. Donald W. Randolph, a former member of the national board, and a panel discussion on "What makes a good chairman," and "What makes a good meeting."

TO ATTEND OPENING . . . A tantalizing selection of South Sea island foods are anticipated by (from left) Mrs. James M. Hall of Hollywood Riviera and Mrs. Jack S. Gates, also of Torrance, as they make plans to attend the grand opening of the Polynesian Restaurant. The two-night opening will be held Wednesday and Thursday, June 10-11, at the exotic Torrance dining establishment.
