

El Camino Open Saturday For Registration Permits

Introduction of a new service to prospective students of El Camino College was announced by Merl F. Sloan, director of student personnel, as he outlined plans for issuing permits to register this Saturday, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

"Those wishing to avoid the problems of crowded parking, long lines, and closed classes will find it advantageous to secure registration permits Saturday," Leo M. Christian, assistant director of student personnel in charge of records and registration, emphasized.

Designation of the Saturday hours for issuing permits to register is an experiment which will be continued in the future if the public response is satisfactory this week end," he said.

Prospective students will pick up permits to register in the registration office of the college administration building located at 16007 S. Crenshaw Blvd. Appointments for placement tests will also be made on Saturday, Christian said.

New students enrolling in courses in mathematics, chemistry, English, language arts, shorthand, and journalism are required to complete a placement test in their specific fields five days prior to enrollment, the college administrator emphasized.

Actual registration will be completed for new students on

Jan. 14, 15, 16, 21, 22, and 23 from 1 to 3 and 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. Counselors will be available for consultation during these hours.

General registration dates are Feb. 5 and 6. All students are advised by the registration office to complete enrollment procedures prior to these dates, when a large segment of classes will be closed to further enrollment.

Christian announced that enrollment figures will reach 4500 before the end of the current week and that a total of 9600 students is anticipated for the spring semester.

Marine Pvt. Fred K. Ragland, son of Mrs. Marcelline J. Ragland, of 618 E. Carson St., completed four weeks of individual combat training Dec. 27 at the Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton.

The course included the latest infantry tactics, first aid, demolitions, field fortifications and advanced schooling on weapons.

James H. Fortner, interior communications electrician fireman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Bishop, 2435 W. 251st St., Lomita, arrived at Colombo, Ceylon, Jan. 1, aboard the radar picket destroyer USS Southerland on a mission of mercy with the Ceylonese Relief Force.

The Ceylon emergency followed continual rains for many weeks, and torrential down pours, described as cyclones, during the past few days. Reports indicate 100,000 homes destroyed by floods, leaving approximately 300,000 homeless victims.

In answer to the Ceylon government's urgent request, the Southerland, along with another destroyer, a seaplane tender, and the support aircraft carrier USS Princeton, was called upon to deliver food packages to the thousands of marooned people and to rescue stranded victims.

A chip off the old block is Michael A. Thornberry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Thornberry, 805 Patronella Ave.

Young Thornberry, a student at military police school at Fort Gordon, Ga., aims to be a policeman like his father, who is a detective with the Los Angeles Police Department.

A 1957 graduate of Serra High School, Thornberry spent Christmas and New Year's with his parents on leave.

Army Pvt. James H. Hays, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hays, 20853 Denker Ave., recently arrived in Iceland and is now a member of the 86th Field Artillery Battalion.

Hays, a cooks helper in the battalion, entered the Army last June and completed basic training at Fort Lewis, Wash.

The 17-year-old soldier attended Gardena High School.
