

Bowlers Resume Top Flight League Action

With the Christmas holiday and ensuing festivities ended for another year, local league bowlers buckled down to some hard and fast contests last week at the Torrance Bowl-O-Drome.

The Manhattan Beach team is two games out in front of Wilmington No. 1 in the Harbor Lions Club League. P. Radisch holds the high series honors with a 696 while D. Radisch has season high game score of 276. Both bowl for the Torrance Lions Cubs.

In the 16th week, D. Francisco is maintaining an average of 191 in the Bowl-O-Drome 850 Scratch League. B. Kuster and H. Maxson trail with 190. Marine Sheet Metal continues to hold top spot in the league.

B. Lindsay with 704 and M. Milford with 286 hold top season spots in the Tuesday Men's Handicap race. Rigby's bowlers are two games ahead of United TV.

Shell Chemical Scratch ain is known as a salon.

League currently is dominated by the Rock-N-Rollers, some 5½ games in front of the Cougars. D. Looper with a series of 647 and J. Rohl with high game of 267 lead the field.

Eastman, Madison Star As City Open Basketball League Starts

Wright's basketball team scored an easy 63-28 victory over the Foods Co. quintet to open the season's play in the Torrance recreation department's open league in North High's gym, Monday night.

Forwards Edgar Eastman and Shelly Madison led the winner's scoring attack swishing 23 and 20 points apiece respectively. Pat Mullin and Wally Robbins score 9 points each for the losing cause. A total of 14 of the winners 18 points scored in the fourth period were made from the free throw line.

In the second game of the evening, forward Bob Fresenius caged 18 digits to pace Kenny's Shoe Repair to a 63-47 win over the hustling General Telephone five. Bob Goldstone hit 20 counters on nine field goals and a pair from the free throw line to take game high scoring honors. Knolls Drug Store turned the tables on Don Merrell's Spoilers 51-31 in the 9:10 p.m. game. Jerry D. Wilson scored 19 of the druggers points while Dan Montgomery and Ron "Wimpy" Chambers were collecting 8 apiece for the losers. The Spoilers will hence forth be known as the Fenwick's Shoe Repair team. Mike Fenwick, proprietor of the Marcelina Ave. store and long time sponsor of Torrance City Basketball champions is returning as a sponsor after an absence of several years, according to Elmer "Red" Moon, athletic director for the city.

Group Meets Normandale Set To Open Hoop Season Tonight

Assemblyman Frank P. Belotti (R-Eureka), chairman of the Assembly Interim Committee on Fish and Game, today announced a public hearing to be held by the committee on Jan. 27, at 10 a.m. in the Wildlife Building Auditorium at Humboldt State College in Arcata. The principal subject for discussion will be the salmon situation. Other matters may be considered if time permits.

Belotti stated, "A recent report by the Department of Fish and Game clearly indicates that our salmon population is in a critical condition, and prompt action must be taken if we are to preserve what remains of the resource."

Basketball at Normandale playground will start tonight with the second annual pre-season tournament getting underway.

Games will be played at the Stephen White Junior High School gym starting at 6:30 p.m. with no admission charge. In the feature game tonight, Billy Mullins leads his powerful Beaver team against the defending champions, the Orojets at 6:30. Both teams have experienced men ready for action and the victors could well be crowned champions when the tournament is over.

Other games will find the Trojans meeting the Padres at 6:30; the Seals face a strong Rainier team at 7:30 and the final contest finds the Mounties taking on a veteran Oaks squad. Teams which loose in the opening round will continue to play in a consolation bracket. The second round will be played Tuesday night with the finals to be held one week from tonight.
