

DANCE OF DIMES SET SATURDAY

The lodge hall of the Torrance Moose will be the charitable setting for the annual "Dance of Dimes," at 9 p.m., Saturday, as the civic affairs and dance committees of the Torrance lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose join forces to present its third annual "March of Dimes" fund-raising project.

With the blessings of Mrs. Clara Connor, postmaster of Torrance and city chairman of the National Infantile Paralysis Foundation program, Fred Lydy, governor of the Torrance lodge, announced that proceeds of the annual event will go towards support of the National Polio Foundation's fight to aid victims of infantile paralysis.

Dance arrangements are under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. William Griep and Mr. and Mrs. Garvis Coffey, representing the lodge and the Women of the Moose. Tin cans bearing the March of Dimes insignia will be scattered throughout the hall so that persons wishing to donate more than their 50-cents admission may do so.

Joseph Piatt, civic affairs chairman, has suggested that a contribution this year might be made in grateful appreciation for the existence of the Salk vaccine, and for the continuing work load of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Tickets may be reserved by calling the Torrance Moose lodge.

Kiwanis Club Will Hear of Blind School

A speaker on modern methods to aid the blind will speak to the Kiwanis Club at a dinner meeting at 6:30 p.m., Monday, in the American Legion Hall, 1109 Border Ave., according to President Kenneth Anderson.

Frederick J. Pym of the Braille Institute, 741 N. Vermont Ave., Los Angeles, will show how all services are free to the blind, according to program chairman John Popovich. The institute is maintained by philanthropic contributions and bequests in wills.

RECIPE FOR DIMES . . . Nat Callman's skill at baking cakes was turned to the benefit of the current March of Dimes campaign at the Bakemaster, South Bay Shopping Center bakery, this week with a beautifully decorated cake which has been turned into a "Dimes" bank. Callman says he expects to collect about $100 in coins on the frothy cake before turning it over to the polio fund.

GARDENERS CHECKLIST

1. Now is the earliest time California gardeners can begin to prune roses. In real cold weather areas, gardeners still must wait.

2. Roses and many other deciduous shrubs and trees are in stock in quantity at nurseries now that bare root season has arrived. New rose varieties should be ordered as soon as possible in case supply runs short.

3. Deciduous fruit and nut trees may be pruned now.

4. First plantings of gladiolus may be made now. Careful spacing of planting through the winter will result in continuous beauty.

5. Now is planting time for berry and grape vines, rhubarb and asparagus.
