The Varsity Basketball team played a very exciting game against Mira Costa last Friday night, but we came out on the short end of the score, which was 50 to 64. Everyone agrees, though that tomorrow's game against Santa Monica at 7 here, will be a different story. All should go to our home games, at least, and support the team.

Congratulations to the new life members of the THS chapter of the California Scholarship Federation. These people have been in CSF for at least four semesters, and one in their senior year.

They are Irene Masaki, Alice Mewborn, David Burdick, Dick Ryon, Tom Carter, Gloria Puncner, Mary Sippel, Keat Bartholic, Janice Bishop, Bill Colby, Judy Lundbom, Paul O'Kain, Jackie Sherer, Linda Shortes, Mindy Strater, Darlene Suedemeyer, Anita Wood, and Betty Yoshioka.

The annual Tri-Hi-Y installation was held Monday night at the home of the club advisor, Mrs. Shannon. Each of the old officers were presented with a corsage and the new officers were given a carnation.

New officers are: president, Barbara Balow; vice president,

The THS Music Department, last Thursday, toured the elementary schools of Torrance and put on a very interesting program. Russ Vanderpool sang many songs for the kids. It is said that Russ rates on their popularity pools between Elvis Presley and Pat Boone. We guess that Russ is now on his way to stardom.

The champion cross country team was awarded beautiful miniature gold track shoes at the noon rally, Friday.
