Lionesses to Aid Husbands Plan Benefit

North Torrance Lionesses are making plans to assist their husbands with the latter's first annual St. Valentine's Day Dance, Feb. 15.

The dance, which is open to the public, will be held in the Knights of Columbus Hall in Gardena.

Lionesses are in charge of decorations. The group is making a five foot red satin and tulle heart with two three foot silver glittered cupids on each side. A sprinkling of red hearts and cupids will adorn the hall, carrying out the theme, "For the Young, and the Young in Heart."

Door prizes will be awarded throughout the evening with a fellowship hour to start at 8 p.m. and dancing to follow at 9 p.m. Viola Stuetz and her orchestra will furnish the music.

Proceeds of the dance will go to the Lions Club fund to support their sight saving project and youth activities.

Tickets can be obtained from any club member or at the door. They are also available from Lioness President Mrs. Earl Chambers, 16703 Fald Ave.

McCue-Ruth Vows Recited In Torrance

Ronald Louis McCue, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. McCue of Anaheim, former Torrance residents, was married to Miss Janie Katherine Ruth of Compton last Saturday afternoon, Feb. 8, at 3 o'clock at the Torrance First Methodist Church.

Mr. Connis E. Ruth walked to the altar with his daughter. She wore a white lace gown and a fingertip veil held by a tiara. The bridal bouquet was of white carnations and rosebuds.

Miss Ellen Marie McCue was the maid of honor. She wore yellow taffeta and carried a matching bouquet.

Mrs. Ruby Lee McCue was the bridesmaid. Her gown was of green taffeta and her bouquet was of matching carnations.

Joe McCoy stood as best man and the Rev. John Taylor, church pastor, officiated at the marriage.

Mrs. Taylor, organist, played the wedding marches and accompanied Rev. Don Shelby, soloist.

A reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents in Anaheim.

The young couple will reside in Anaheim.

Fuchsia Club

Lomita Branch of the California National Fuchsia Society will hold its regular meeting Feb. 21, at the American Legion Hall in Lomita.

Speaker of the evening will be Ken Tyler, who will tell members how to keep pests out of gardens.

A plant sale and refreshments will follow the meeting.

MUSIC CLUB TO MEET SUNDAY

Vellez Record and Music Club of Lomita will hold a reception Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the president, Mrs. Inez Brumbelew, 24208 Arlene Ave., Lomita.

This is for members and invited guests, according to Henry Weaver, Sr., publicity chairman.

Featured will be Micky Turner, TV and radio artist of Torrance; Dennis Zubich's Boys' Band of San Pedro; Barney Spencer, top artist on the club's AF of M label, recently released. Several local vocalists will be accompanied by Verna Flynn, club pianist and soprano.

NEW CHURCH TO STAGE DANCE

St. Philomena Women's Council will sponsor a dance at the new school hall, 21848 Main St., Saturday evening, Feb. 15, at 8 p.m.

Phil Arruro's band will provide dance music for all ages, according to Mrs. Louise Ahearn, chairman.

Mrs. Marie LeRay, chairman, and her decorating committee will use the red and white Valentine motif.

Co-chairmen are Mmes. Marion Wenker, Bernice Niles, Mary Andich, Mildred Turner, La Montagne. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

NEW ADDITION

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Faris, 19511 Entradera Ave., welcomed a daughter, Cynthia Yvonne, Feb. 3, at Maywood Hospital.

The five pound, nine ounce new addition is the grandchild of Mrs. Gladis M. Ferris of Fort Smith, Ark., and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Laven of Santa Fe Springs.

Junior Garden Club Studies Elections

Tommy Patterson took over as official president at the meeting of the Junior Green-thumber Club, on Saturday, Feb. 1, at the home of Mrs. Earl Hubacek, 5608 Rockview Dr.

Nominations for new officers were the highlights of the business meeting. Joe Kay Louvier and Cheryl Clemens were nominated for the vice presidency. Susan and Claudia Fitzgerald who are moving away, declined their nominations for secretary. The new publicity chairman will be appointed at the next meeting.

After the business meeting the members learned how to plant rose slits in peat moss. A review test on former lessons was also given.

Cookies and punch were served to the following members: Tommy, Jimmy and Jay Louvier, Susan and Claudia Fitzgerald and Jo Kay Louvier.

New Officers Are Installed

Junior High Topper Y-Teens held an informal installation, following the Y-Teen Mother-Daughter Tea held at the YWCA on Jan. 26.

Outgoing officers were: Florine Custer, president; Betty Sorkness, vice president; Cherie Lacy, secretary; Gracie Connet, treasurer; Tommie Chandler, historian reporter; Joanne Carr, chaplain; Linda Eldridge, sergeant-at-arms; and Sue Larson, judge.

Newly installed officers are: Joanne Carr, president; Sue Larson, vice president; Michele McCutchen, secretary; Linda Eldridge, treasurer; DeAnn Goldsmith, historian; Patti Woodman, chaplain; Barbara Zubervich, sergeant-at-arms; Diana Gamboa, judge; Casey Crossman, assistant judge; Florine Custer, I. C. C. reporter; and Pat King, reporter.

Virginia Juvet was elected honorary member.

Full Schedule Of Activities Planned Here

A full schedule of activities has been planned by the Tierra del Rey Parlor 300, Hermosa Beach Native Daughters of the Golden West.

The daytime group met Thursday in the home of Mrs. William Vasilion in Hermosa Beach, to work on corsages for the officials visit to be held Feb. 28 in Culver City.

On Feb. 14, Valentines Day, a luncheon and birthday party for Tierra del Rey's veteran, Helen Sylvester, will be held at the Hollywood Riviera home of Mrs. Jack Watt. Mrs. Robert Moeskops is chairman of the veteran's committee.

A potluck dinner will be held Feb. 17 at the Neptunian Club in Manhattan and members of the Estrella del Mar, Junior Unit 35, Native Daughters of the Golden West will be guest. A regular meeting of the Tierra del Rey Parlor will follow the dinner.
