St. Pat Dance, Card Party Next Sunday

A St. Patrick's dance and card party sponsored by the Men's and Women's Councils of St. Philomena parish will be held on Sunday evening, March 16, at 8 p.m. at the school hall located at 21848 S. Main St. Co-chairmen for the event are Mrs. Bernardin of the Women's Council and Mr. Pfadt of the Men's Council.

Phil Arturo's orchestra will provide the music for an enjoyable evening of dancing in a setting of Irish emblems, shamrocks and black hats intricately decorated under the guidance of Mrs. Gloria Turner. Messrs. DiPrete, Spielman, Higley and McGrath head the committees on organized card games and tickets sales, while Mmes. Niles, Mildred Turner, La Montagne, Ferrara and Eilers are in charge of refreshments.

Tickets will be available at the door on the evening of the dance.

Karen Griffin Installed as Club Leader

Karen Griffin has been officially installed as president of the Hi Debs, South High Y-teen group in Torrance, following ceremonies Sunday at the La Venta Inn.

Each new officer received a red carnation which represented the job that lies ahead of her. Outgoing officers were presented with a pin and a corsage signifying a job well done. Marion Daniels, past president, received a gavel from Miss Griffin.

Other officers installed include Frances Young, vice president; Mitzi Yoshioka, secretary; Sandy Chapman, treasurer; Marion Daniels, chaplain; Joelyn Ferrell, historian reporter; Maren Courtney, inner club council representative, and Lynn Burman, attendance.

Also presented with corsages and pins were Mrs. E. W. Phillips and Mrs. J. M. Daniels, past advisors. New advisors are Mrs. E. Grace, Mrs. H. Bishop and Mrs. P. O. Roettger.

Magic Show Scheduled

A magic show will be presented Monday, 7:30 p.m., in the Educational Hall of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, 1432 Engracia Ave.

The show will be presented by Father Blum of Camp Stevens. He also will show color slides of the camp.

Door prizes will be offered, according to Mrs. Helen Capron, chairman of the St. Anne's Guild, sponsors of the event. Tickets will be available at the door.

Local Women On Delphian Officer List

At a recent meeting of the Chi Zeta Chapter of Delphian women held in the Palos Verdes Art Gallery, second year elections brought local women onto the executive board of the group. Elected president was Mrs. Paul Wilkins of Palos Verdes who served as secretary last year. Mrs. Ben Warner of Hollywood Riviera was made seminar chairman and Torrance residents, Mrs. Ted R. Corazza and Mrs. Howard Huizing were elected vice president and treasurer, respectively. Mrs. Robert Prout, secretary; Mrs. J. Glennon Cahill and Mrs. John R. Hanson were elected seminar board members.

The Delphian group reads and discusses subjects on a planned basis as set forth by the national organization. The subject matter covers psychological, political and cultural patterns. It offers a unique treatment of the group action in that personal references are forbidden and general discussion is guided by a rotating moderator.

The Chapter charters are for three years only, membership is by invitation and the chapters are limited as to charter members although transfers are accepted.

Rock Hounds Slate Meet

Verl, Donna and Kathy Martin, known as the "Desert Nomads," will speak to the Palos Verdes Gem and Mineral Society and will show their color film, "Desert Panorama," March 18 at 8 p.m., California Hall, 1932 Pacific Coast Hwy., Lomita.

The Martins have covered more than 300,000 desert miles following old trails, collecting gems, artifacts, and exploring lost mines and ghost towns.

Guests and visitors are invited and refreshments will be served.

Jr. Flower Club Elects New Officers

Claudia Fitzgerald has been named the new president of the Junior Greenthumbers at a meeting Saturday held at the home of Mrs. Earl Hubacek.

Others elected to office include Linda Haley, vice president; Alice Knight, secretary; Leslie Autter, publicity chairman; JoKay Louvier, historian; Cheryl Clemens, flower show chairman; and Jimmy Pateron, sunshine chairman.

The group discussed the duties of the officers and cookies and punch were served.

Phillips-Snow Nuptials Are Read in Baptist Ceremony

Miss Marjorie June Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Phillips of Long Beach, plighted her marriage vows with Charles Snow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy K. Snow, 1353 W. 252nd St., Torrance, in a formal ceremony at the First Baptist Church on Friday, Feb. 28.

Mr. Phillips walked to the altar with his daughter. She wore a waltz length gown of white lace over satin. A Juliet cap held the fingertip veil and she carried a cluster of carnations and lavender orchid atop a white Bible.

Miss Carol Hammond served as the maid of honor. She wore a yellow net gown and a yellow Juliet crown. Her bouquet was a nosegay of lavender daisies.

Bridesmaids were Misses Barbara Daniels and Elaine Lindstrum. They both wore lavender net gowns and carried nosegays of yellow daisies. Little Tana Ferguson was the flower girl, wearing a rose nylon frock and carrying sweet peas and daisies.

The Rev. M. Gates officiated at the marriage and Mrs. Joan Buckman sang "Always" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Jack O'Brien stood as best man and ushers were Robert and Raymond Snow.

A reception was held at the Moose Hall following the wedding. The newlyweds spent a honeymoon in Balboa.

The bride was graduated from the Gardena High School. Mr. Snow is a Narbonne High graduate and is employed by an electrical company.

HONOR SENATOR

Hosting a table of friends at The Plush Horse Restaurant recently were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Anderson of Torrance. Their distinguished guest-of-honor was Sen. Homer Ferguson of Ohio.

BOARD MEETING

Mr. and Mrs. Parke Montague entertained the board of the Los Fiesta Dance Club at their Beech Ave. home last Sunday evening.

During the business meeting, the ballots were counted for new members. After the meeting the hostess served refreshments. Present were Messrs. and Mmes. J. A. Barrington, J. A. Eisenbrandt, John Schwartz, and Dr. and Mrs. Allen Pyeatt.

BETSY ROSS CLUB MEETS MARCH 18

Betsy Ross Club, ways and means committee, for the Torrance Eastern Star will meet Feb. 18 at the Torrance Masonic Temple. Members will gather at 10 a.m. bringing their own sandwiches. At noon a dessert and coffee will be served for a small donation.

Bettina Miller, 1958 president, urges chapter members to gather their rummage in readiness for the sale on April 3, 4, and 5.

Those who do not have storage room may take their rummage to the Miller home, 1724 Date St., prior to the sale. Alethea Smith, P.M., chairman for the white elephant booth during the fall bazaar also asks members and friends to set aside those useful and decorative articles that have sale appeal.
