

LOCAL PTA ACTIVITIES

Narbonne

"Looking for Better Health" is the theme of the Narbonne High School PTA meeting Tuesday, March 18, to be held in the multi-purpose room of the school at 1:30 p.m.

Mrs. Sophia Salvin, mental health chairman of 10th District, will be the guest speaker. Her topic "Mental Health of the Adolescent in the Atomic Age" promises to be extremely interesting. Mrs. Salvin, who is also principal of Solano and Bellevue School, has lectured for the University of Southern California and has also served on the governor's conference for state, national and international level.

Also on the program will be a scientific demonstration by students of Arthur Freier's mathematics class.

At the conclusion of the meeting the annual election of officers will be held. All members and those interested in PTA are urged to attend. Refreshments will be served during the social hour following the business meeting.

FERN-GREENWOOD

A change in the program for the Fern Greenwood PTA meeting to be held tonight at the Fern Cafeteria at 7:30 p.m. was announced at the executive board meeting held last week at the home of Mrs. C. A. Strayer, 115 Fay Smith Ave. There will be a talk on the mental health aspects of narcotics given by Mrs. Virginia Vogel, noted author and lecturer. There will be paper and pencils provided for writing questions to be answered. The teachers will be honored at this meeting, as well as elections of officers for the coming year.

The board voted to accept the resignation of Mrs. W. D. Marleau as Newsletter chairman. Mrs. Art Campbell, president, announced a series of lectures on the "Elementary School Child," given by Mrs. F. Green-span. They will be held on March 17 and 24 at the Fern Cafeteria and are jointly sponsored by the Adult Education and the Torrance Council PTA.

El Nido

Plans for another rag and paper drive were formulated at the El Nido PTA board meeting held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Colclasure, 18430 Amie St., March 6.

The February hot lunch was reported a complete success and a combination hot lunch and bazaar was outlined by the ways and means chairman.

Mrs. Amos Chadwick presided at the board meeting with Mr. Ira Hon reading and taking the minutes in the absence of the secretary. The inspirational message was read by Mrs. Philo Mellor.

During National Book Week, March 16-22, a book drive will be held at El Nido, according to Mrs. Chadwick and William Forrest.

FISHING TRIP

Spending three days on a successful fishing trip at Little Tujunga Canyon last week end were Thomas Edmunds, Wayne Norman and William Crooker.

Carl Steele

Lester Wandell from the Washington School in Hawthorne will be guest speaker at the Steele PTA meeting Thursday, March 13. The Washington School incorporates the Braille children from the southwest cooperative district and Mr. Wandell will speak on this subject.

The March association meeting will also feature student club presidents who will speak briefly on the activity of their organization. Election of officers for the coming term will be held.

Ways and Means Chairman Mrs. Robert Golden gave the financial report on the Saturday movie program to the board at their recent meeting. The success and popularity of this program was discussed and it was decided to resume the movies in May.

Mrs. John Hubacek, library chairman, reported that a special all-cartoon movie will be offered April 12 at raise money for the purchase of new books for the library. Further information will be given at a later date.
