Camp Fire Groups Plant Ash Tree in McMaster Park Fete

A tree grows in McMaster Park—thanks to the generosity of eight Camp Fire groups. The tree planting ceremony in celebration of Arbor Day, was held Saturday, 11:30 a.m., with Les Breinfeldt, director of the park, accepting the tree. Ralph Manjarrez, father of one of the Camp Fire girls, donated a dedication plaque.

All members of the Harbor District Camp Fire Girls, the North Torrance groups taking part in the planting of the ash tree were: Tawasi Kinunka with Mrs. Marvin Schockley, leader, and Mrs. Heinz Gabloffsky and Mrs. Harry Winchell, sponsors; Okiciyapi Winuke with Mrs. Delmer Kern as leader and Mrs. Norval Scrivens, sponsor; Silver Blue Birds with Mrs. Charles McCormick as leader, and Mmes. Gerald Salisbury, William Dempster, Donald Vairin and Fred Miller, sponsors.

Blue Birdies with Mrs. Jack Holton as leader, and Mmes. Douglas McCoach, Jim Hewitt, Andrew Hansen and Kenneth Judd as sponsors; Golden Blue Birds with Mrs. Carl Young as leader and Mmes. Leon Wurzer, Silvan Simone and Charles Wells, sponsors.

Color Achieved by Blooms

Members of the North Torrance Branch of the California National Fuchsia Society met at McMaster Hall last week to hear Mrs. J. W. Jensen of the Jenson Begonia Gardens speak on "Color in Shade Gardens." Mrs. Jensen substituted for Gordon Bake Lloyd, who was ill.

The speaker told of the effects achieved with planning for continuous blooms using even inexpensive plants of easy culture. Among the guests at the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor. He is the president of the California National Society and president of the Gardena Branch. In addition he is chairman of the forthcoming Shade Plant Show to be held in June at the Long Beach Auditorium.

Mrs. Frank Hinkel, program director, announced Kenny Uyeda will be the speaker for the April meeting. An Easter bonnet parade and Easter decorations will be featured.
