

ROGER HOGUE

Hogue Bidding For April Vote On City Council

Cooperation with city commissions has been promised by Roger P. "Pat" Hogue, 36, a candidate for city councilman. Hogue, who resides at 4630 Toucan St., with his wife and three children, Dennis, 15; Dianne, 13; and Terry, three, moved to Torrance in 1954.

Union Member
He is a sheet metal foreman for Lynn English and Son, sheet metal contractor and has been a member of the Sheet Metal Workers Union 108 for 11 years.
Born in Ritchie, Ark., he went to high school in Junction City, Ark. and attended Santa Monica Technical School and also spent one year at agricultural college.
He served in the Pacific Theater aboard the Aircraft Carrier "Yorktown" for 26 months, covering 11 invasions and the second battle of the Philippine Sea. He received the Captain Commendation and Presidential Unit Citation.
Little League
A member of the Southwest Park Civic Assn. and a board member for the Torrance Babe Ruth League, he previously belonged to the North Torrance Little League and the Venice Little League. He also was a member of the Optimist Club in El Dorado, Ark.
Hogue was active in helping to raise funds for the city's Tournament of Roses entry this year.

Frank Hunter on Ballot for City Treasurer's Job

Frank Hunter, 2604 Dalemead St., is one of the two candidates to file for the post of city treasurer in the April 8 municipal election.

A resident of this area for five years, Hunter is employed by Sears and Roebuck Co., Hollywood, in the heating and ventilating layout and sales department.

Formerly of Indianapolis, Ind., he attended Lane Business College in Pittsburgh, studying bookkeeping and business. He was graduated in 1922.

Active in civic affairs, he is a member of the Kiwanis Club of Waveria, serving his second year as secretary-treasurer and is charge lay leader in the Waveria Community Methodist Church and a member of the Masonic Lodge and of the Waveria Businessmen's Club.
He is married and has two grown children, Howard and Mary.

Moose Card Party Slated This Friday

The second in a series of charity card games, open to the public, will be presented by the men of the Torrance Moose Lodge and the Women of the Moose Chapter at the lodge hall, 1744 W. Carson St., Friday, at 8 p.m., according to James A. Evans, lodge secretary.

Proceeds of the card game party will be donated by the Moose lodge and auxiliary to the Little Company of Mary Hospital, now under construction on Torrance Blvd. and Earl St. in this city. Prizes will be donated by the membership.

Fred Lydy, lodge governor, and Mrs. Edna Harbison, chapter senior regent, will act as host and hostess of the party.

Capacity Crowd Attends Moose Lodge Ceremony

A capacity crowd attended the 34th anniversary celebration of the founding of the Torrance Moose Lodge Sunday. The group heard words of congratulations and greeting from Mayor Albert Isen, Councilman Willis Blount and Nick Dralle, and then witnessed a colorful "mortgage burning" ceremony in which seven past governors and four past senior regents participated.

Judy and Johnny Maus, young Hermosa Beach performers, were featured in the entertainment portion of the program. They were supported by Johnny Kwilang, Barbara Bowers and Donna Pittman, students of Mrs. Esther Lambrigger.

Mrs. Stanley Heiman, a member of the Loyal Order of Moose College of Regents, reviewed the work of the Women of the Moose. A history of the Torrance Moose lodge was related by Daniel Desmond, a Fellowship member of the Moose fraternity.

In his brief remarks to the audience, Mayor Isen commended the lodge and its membership for its many contributions to civic betterment. He congratulated the lodge on the caliber of its leadership and its continuing progress.

Participating in the "mortgage burning" ceremony were lodge past governors Thomas Wilkes, A. H. Bartlett, James Johnston, Dan Desmond, Joseph Platt, James Evans and Stanley Heiman. Mrs. James Stiles, Mrs. Edward Peacock, Mrs. George Clay and Mrs. Leona Shiffer, past senior regents of the chapter, assisted in the ceremony. Joseph Platt acted as master-of-ceremonies.

Small Fires Reported

Fire activities this week were limited to a blaze in scrap lumber at 242nd and Park St., Monday, and a short in a TV set at the W. L. Brooks home, 1416 Elm Ave., Tuesday, Torrance firemen reported.
