

ECONOMY RUN DRIVERS . . . Pierce Venable, 5419 Sharynne Lane, and Ivan R. Lewis, 3207 Danaha, will be among the contenders in the 1958 Mobilgas Economy Run which takes off for Galveston, Tex., Sunday. This will be Venable's seventh run as a driver.

Two Torrance Drivers in Economy Run

Two Torrance residents will be driving in the 1958 Mobilgas Economy Run, which takes off next Sunday (April 13) for Galveston, Tex.

Pierce Venable, 5419 Sharynne Lane, will be wheeling a Plymouth Belvedere in a field of 29 completely stock, American autos. This will be his seventh run as a driver, and he has taken four first places.

Venable is a sales engineer, is married and has three children. He attended Santa Barbara State College and is an enthusiastic backer of Little League baseball.

Ivan R. Lewis, 3207 Danaha, will be chewing at his black, waxed mustache during the five-day run, while he pilots a Ford Fairlane. He is married, has two children and works in a garage.

OPEN HOUSE D.A. to Talk On Juvenile Delinquency

"Back to School" will be the theme for the Narbonne High School open house on Wednesday, April 23, at 7:15 p.m. Parents and visitors will follow the program of a typical student.

Students will give a copy of their program to their parents on April 21. Friends, alumni and interested citizens coming to the program can pick up a student program at the registration centers in the administration Building during Open House night. Every adult will be given his own child's program or a typical student program. Adults who have obtained programs will follow them, remaining in each class about 10 minutes.

The evening program will begin with a general meeting in the circle area before classes.

High Party Leaders Back Quinn Drive

County Assessor John R. Quinn was endorsed for reelection today at the June primary by Edward S. Shattuck, California Republican National Committeeman.

In a public statement Shattuck said:

"I personally will vote for John R. Quinn for County Assessor."

The statement continued that Quinn has conducted "this highly important office in an honest, efficient and fair manner."

Quinn had previously been endorsed for re-election by the State's highest Democrat, Paul Ziffren, California Democratic National Committeeman.

Both high political leaders pointed out Quinn's job is non-partisan and urged voters to cast their ballots—without regard for party labels.
