Parents Plan Graduation

Parents of North High seniors met with the leaders of the class recently to discuss reports on the various commencement activities which are in the planning stage at this time.

Bob McHugh, class president, presided over the meeting which included resumes from each of the 16 committee chairmen and a report from the PTA president, Mrs. J. R. Sanders, concerning the after-graduation party.

James B. Crow, class sponsor and Principal Dale M. Harter spoke and then the meeting was turned over to the seniors.

Committee chairmen reporting were Jenny Alexander, cap and gown committee; Cathy Sawyer, graduation announcements; Dwain Saunders, senior will; Joyce Flocken, senior gift to school; Lee Ruecker, senior traditions; and Paul Grutis, senior recognition assembly.

Others were Terry Baker, senlor day; Mel Saucier, senior prophecy; Lella Santor, senior breakfast; Phyllis Sandoval, senior tea; Jim Warnemuende, speakers for baccalaureate and commencement; Bill Lee, commencement; Diana Bybee, baccalaureate; Mike Cummings and Pat Reynolds, junior-senior prom; and Barbara Cage, after graduation party.

Refreshments were served following the meeting.

Longren Reveals New Firm Branch For Electronics

Longren Aircraft Co., Inc. has announced the acquisition of the electronics assets of the Stone & Smith Co. John Doering will head Longren's electronic branch, whose major function is specialization in stepping switches and switching systems.

General fields of application for Longren's electronic division will be in ground check equipment, guided missile programming, and in the commercial field of television and radio.

Hampden Wentworth, president of Longren, stated that the recognized accomplishments of the company in aircraft and missile structures makes Longren uniquely suited to aggressively enter the elec-

YMCA Seeks $2500 More For Expenses

A "Save the YMCA" drive designed to raise funds to fill out its operating budget was announced here yesterday by J. A. Smith, chairman of the YMCA board of directors.

Smith revealed that the local youth serving agency was still $2500 short of its 1958 current support needs. He urged all citizens to make a pledge in the next few days to "Save the YMCA" for the thousands of local youngsters who enjoy YMCA clubs, camps, outings, leagues, and counseling services.

The present staff must be reduced and many services curtailed unless additional funds come from new sources, he said.
