Alward Fuller

Final rites for Alward Fuller, 63, 24257 Park St., have been tentatively set for 2 p.m. Saturday in Stone and Myers Chapel. Rev. Wendell Hook and the Torrance Masonic Lodge will officiate.

A resident of Torrance for about six months, he was a retired immigration officer in Vermont. He was a veteran of World War I and a past master of the Memphermagog Masonic Lodge 65 of Newport, Vt. He also belonged to the First Methodist Church of Waleria. Members of the Torrance Masonic lodge will act as pallbearers, with burial in Green Hills.

Survivors include his widow, Ruth; son, Alward, 2406 Ridgeland Rd.; daughters, Patricia Jean Witham, Burlington, Vt., Marilyn Johanne Litchfield, Framingham, Mass., and Janice Elaine Stinson, Torrance; and brothers, Murray, New Hampshire, and Howard, Vermont.

Lyle C. Doan

Lyle C. Doan, a past commander of the Bert S. Crossland American Legion Post and grocery store owner here for several years, died Friday in Long Beach.

Services were held yesterday in Motell and Peek's Chapel in Long Beach, with burial in Green Hills.

Doan operated a market on Torrance Blvd. from 1929 to

Market Becomes Western Farms

Western Farms Market will be the new name of Hincley's Market, 24002 Narbonne Ave., effectively immediately, according to Ed Goldstein, the new owner.

A veteran of the grocery business, Goldstein purchased the market about a month ago. He announced that modernization for shopping convenience would be made soon. S and H Green Stamps also will be given.

"The market will continue to sell the finest foods at competitive prices in a neighborly atmosphere," Goldstein said.

1940 and commanded the local Legion post in 1938-39. He and his wife operate the Greenwich Wedding Chapel, in Long Beach at the time of his death. He lived at 177 Cordova Walk, Long Beach.

Survivors include his widow, Hallie; daughter, Patricia Crook, and two grandchildren.
