Brownie Troop 2094

Brownie Troop 2094 was reactivated recently under the leadership of Mrs. Marion Sexton, with co-leaders Mrs. Rosemary Cass, and Mrs. Margaret Smith. The investiture ceremony was held on April 11, at the home of Mrs. Sexton. Repeating the Brownie promise, were new members Grace Hiroshima, Shelley Smith, and Pamela Cass. Mothers of the new Brownies were present, and refreshments were served. Current project for the girls is to make a "nose bag" for picnic lunches using a large bandanna.

Boy Scout Troop 960

The newly formed auxiliary for Boy Scout Troop 960 met recently at the Sea-Aire Park under the direction of Mrs. Jackie Starinsky.

An election of officers was held to fill the various offices and committees. Those elected were Jackie Starinsky, president; Adelaide Daniels, vice president; Kay Angelidis, social committee; Jane Meyer, publicity; Louise Cassidy, ways and means and decoration; Beth Urana, telephone chairman; Pauline Cave, secretary-treasurer; and Maxine McPhillips, historian.

Pauline Cave also will be in charge of the uniform exchange.

Plans are being made for a bake sale in the near future, the president reported.

Cub Pack 732-C

The following awards and presentations were made at the last meeting of Cub Pack 732-C.

Eugene Zlaket advanced to the Bear rank. Richard Sullivan received his Lion badge.

Timothy Ferguson, Raymond Sullivan, Peter Zappas, Michael O'Betz, Eugene Zlaket, and Richard Sullivan were given arrow points.

Kenneth Holmes and John Thompson were given their arrow of life badge, the Cub Scout graduation certification plaque, three year pins and were accepted into Scout Troop 732 by Scoutmaster Robert Scarborough.

The troop's charter for the ensuing year was accepted from District Commissioner Bill Walton by troop institutional representative Raymond Anderson. The charter was then presented to Ruth Thompson, president of the troop's sponsor, the Torrance Elementary School PTA.

A skit by Den 2 and group singing led by former Cubmaster Lee Poolock were held.

Brownie Troop 397

Clifton's Cafeteria in Lakewood was the scene of a "Happy First Birthday" Luncheon for Brownie Troop 397 on Saturday.

The troop, sponsored by the El Camino Kiwanis Club, has just completed a year in Scouting.

After a gala lunch at a beautifully decorated table, centered by a giant birthday cake, the following girls were presented year stars by their lead-
