Playskill's New Summer Season Announced Here

"Learn while you are playing" is the 1958 theme offered by Playskill Hill Day Camp and the Academy of Athletics as it opens its summer program enrollments.
 Children enrolled at Playskill will receive professional instruction while participating in small groups of their own age, interest, and ability, according to Bob Ellsworth, of Playskill.
 Among the features offered will be swimming, trampoline, archery, and body building instructions.
 Three programs will be available this summer, Ellsworth reports. They will include day camping, the academy of athletics, and swimming instructions.
 Ellsworth may be contacted at 1533 W. 247th St. in Harbor City. The Playskill pool and campsite is at 904 Torrance Blvd. in Redondo Beach.

Indian Chief Just Natural As a Leader

Chief Billy Buffalo Boy Canoe, a 32-year-old Ogalala Sioux Indian chief, operates a gymnasium for boys whose parents were so enthusiastic about the Chief's work with the lads that they set up his gym facilities—including the curtains and drapes.
 Chief Canoe started out by teaching judo while he was an assistant physical education instructor at the Beverly Hills YMCA following World War II. He had returned from duty as an Army Paratrooper with 683 jumps and three Purple Hearts to his credit.

This descendant of the first real American says his methods are a bit out of the ordinary at times.
 "I never demand too much respect from the boys," he says.

It is not too surprising that he gets a lot of respect, however. He earns it—he doesn't demand it.

"At the gym, everyone is equal. I have no favorites and there are all races, colors, and religions among the boys. I wouldn't have it otherwise," Chief Canoe states.

His favorites activities are the week end hikes, nature studies, outdoor cooks, and other "he man" adventures.

Groundbreaking Fete
 Groundbreaking ceremonies were held recently at the Anza Avenue Baptist Church, corner of Valerie St. and Spencer Sts.
 A potluck dinner followed the morning service. Speakers were the Rev. V. C. Scott, the Rev. Ed. Harness and the closing prayer was given by the Rev. A. Box.
