Musical Comedy Scheduled At Montgomery High School

Montgomery High School will present its first musical comedy on May 23, 24 and 25 at 8 p.m. in the library-auditorium. The show, "Shreds and Patches," by Gilbert and Sullivan, combines the efforts of over 110 students from Montgomery's freshman class.

Sharon Purdy, Manhattan Beach, and Harvey Faurholt, Torrance, take the romantic leads, while other parts are played by David Bomba, Torrance; Newton Lesh, Rolling Hills; John DiRosario, Torrance; Bill Stoeger, Redondo; George Jordan, Palos Verdes Estates; Maurice Hermeyer, Redondo; Jack Gordon, Torrance; Mary Lou Alford, Torrance; Julia Long, Redondo; Alexis Chapman, Gardena; Susan Keefe, Torrance.

Piano Overture
A piano overture will precede the show. It was composed by Lynne McRae, Palos Verdes Estates, a Montgomery freshman, who will play it, and will also act as accompanist during the show. Organ accompaniment will be presented by Leonard DeBenedictis, Redondo.

Choruses will be made of boys' and girls' selected groups and dancers have been selected from boys' and girls' classes. Stage set and scenery were created by James Strunk, Torrance; Philip Cool, Torrance, and Paul Clemens, Gardena, of the Montgomery art department.

Parents Help
Mothers and fathers in the parent-faculty organization have co-operated in many of the projects concerning ticket selling and gathering of patrons and sponsors. Mrs. Gordon McRae, Palos Verdes Estates, assumed responsibility for costuming for the entire show, assisted by Mrs. Van W. Long.

The musical comedy was directed by Sr. Rita Francis, C.S.J., who was assisted by Father Anselm Romb, O.F.M. conventual.
