FIRST STRINGER... Larry Hankhammer, whose strong right arm was largely instrumental in keeping the El Camino College Warriors in the race to the final game, was one of two ECC players named to the first string All-Metropolitan Conference team. Second sacker Dave Wait also gained conference honors.

Junior Keglers Take Trophy at San Diego

Bowl-O-Drome's Junior All-Stars succumbed teenage keggers from San Diego's Claremont Bowl during their second scheduled bout hosted by Bowl-O-Drome last Sunday.

Winning line-up of Don Anderson, Billy Anselm, Dennis Perkins, Ronnie Barnes and Bill McCormick pocketed two out of three to capture the crown from Dave Freeman, Lonnie Cole, Gary Shore, Bob Harris and Robert Taylor who made it more than rough for the out-of-towners.

Bowl-O-Drome's Bob Harris wracked up single honors, cutting loose with 203-211-256 for a whopping 670 and presentation by Max Schriber of the trophy, set up for the day's match by the Bowl-O-Drome chief, for the boy who hurled the highest scratch series.

Palms Cafe and team six deadlocked for the key position, one half game in front of Ed and George Richfield in trio for theetanihdsaur etao Thursday's 9 p.m. 550 Scratch Trio for the first round of the summer meet. Setting the pace for individual awards are members of both the leading squads. Von Bergen, who hurled a sizzling 245 solo and J. Crawford, pitching four biggies totaling 687.

Tuesday's Men's Commercial Handicap top shot held by Acme TV, one game edge over United TV, Pauls Construction and Mike Tommaney Plumbing, all bunched for the second, third, and fourth positions. E. Long, Two-Mack's Electric kegler latched onto the early high series honors with his 608&78-685 total, while D. Kuehl of Mike's Cafe soloed to a tune of 267&2-260.

Big doings on Bowl-O-Drome lanes this week end as the 11th Annual Western Industrial Tournament gets under way.

Baseball Fans To Take In Dodger Game

Baseball fans were urged today to make a big circle on their calendar around Saturday, July 19!

Tentative plans have been arranged for a gigantic "Torrance Night" at the Los Angeles Dodgers vs. Philadelphia game on that date at the coliseum, according to the sponsoring Torrance Chamber of Commerce.

Special Events Chairman, J. H. Paget, said arrangements are being worked out now with Tuck Stainback of the Dodgers and all details will be announced following a final meeting with Dodger officials on June 11.

Paget said his organization is attempting not only to successfully promote a "Torrance Night" at the ballpark, but is hoping for a morning parade of kids baseball organizations and Dodger players to be followed by a players clinic conducted by stars such as Duke Snyder, Carl Erskine, and others. All youngsters would be admitted free to the latter event if details are worked out.
