J. Rome Gateley Takes Gavel As Commander of Legion Post

J. Rome Gateley was installed Sunday as commander of the

Bert S. Crossland Post of the American Legion in ceremonies conducted at the Legion clubhouse, 1109 Border Ave.

Installing Gateley and other new officers of the Post was Leonard Cross, commander of the Los Angeles County Council of the American Legion.

In accepting the gavel from Commander Cross, Gateley pledged to do his best "to conduct the affairs of this Post with dignity as befitting a great organization."

The new commander pointed out that the American Legion is the largest veterans organization in the United States and one of the leading civic groups of the nation.

Americanism Stressed
He called for increased activity on the part of the Legion's Americanism committee, and emphasis on inculcating a sense of individual responsibility to the community, state, and nation.

Installed to serve with Gateley for the coming year were Edward Loehnis, first vice commander; Melvin Coates, second vice commander; Harry Armacost Jr., adjutant; Curtis Smith, finance officer; Stanley Heiman, service officer; G. P.

Siu, sergeant at arms, and W. K. Shipley, historian.

C. J. "Paddy" Ryan was installed to serve his 10th consecutive term as chaplain of the post.

Other Officers

Other officers and committeemen installed included the executive committee composed of Ben Roberts, J. G. Henderson, and J. F. Rawden; house committeemen John Bennett, Jim Baudin, E. E. Hobbs Jr., Paul Jones, and Robert Faren; Charles B. Dunham, judge advocate; James H. Burchett, school awards; and Joe Platt, publicity.

The first executive committee meeting will be held at the hall tonight beginning at 8 and the general membership meeting will be held next Tuesday evening at 8.

CANAL TRAFFIC

Cargo carried through the Panama canal in fiscal 1955 amounted to 40,646,301 tons, an increase over the previous year.

Student Honored

Lloyd Nakatani, 18, of 22130 Grace St., was awarded a handbook of mathematical tables for outstanding achievement in mathematics at the spring leadership banquet of Harbor Junior College recently. Nakatani, who is majoring in engineering at the school, accepted the award from Mary Ryan, instructor.

Breakfast Scheduled

Harbor Medical Assistants Assn. will stage a Father's Day open air breakfast, Sunday, at 26219 Ozone Ave., 8:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.
