

CLEAN CAR CRUSADE

Youth of the Foursquare Church of Torrance will conduct a special clean car crusade Saturday, 9 a.m. to 2 p.m., at Arlington Ave. and Sepulveda Blvd.

Facilities have been made available for the crusade by the manager of the Hancock Service Station at the intersection.

The young people will request a small donation for each car washed and the funds will be used to send youngsters to summer camp.

Rev. Ray Anger to Receive Honorary Degree of Doctor

Dr. Ernest Holmes, founder of the Religious Science movement, will present to Rev. Ray Anger, minister of the Torrance Religious Science Group, an honorary degree of Doctor of Religious Science, at the Founder's Church annual graduation ceremonies, in Los Angeles, Sunday, at 3:30 p.m.

The doctorate will be in recognition of the minister's long service to the movement, his work on several national boards, and his authorship of a metaphysical book.

This Sunday evening at 7:30, Rev. Ray Anger will speak on "Inspiration," at the service at the YWCA, 2320 W. Carson St. Gloria Schummer will sing a solo, and the public is invited.

New recognition will come to the Torrance Group on the evening of Sunday, June 22, when Dr. Mark T. Carpenter, administrator of the department of affiliated churches of the Church of Religious Science, Los Angeles, will confer upon the local congregation special status as a fully-accredited study group. This will be done at a potluck dinner celebration, when Dr. Carpenter will speak on "Moving into a Greater Consciousness."

Each Wednesday evening at 7:30, Rev. Anger leads a class in the Science of Mind at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Shipley, 1545 W. 216th St.

Fathers Honored at South Bay Church

Dr. J. C. Brumfield, pastor of the South Bay Baptist Church, will speak on "If God Were Your Father" at Sunday's morning services.

The 7:30 p.m. service will honor the 1958 graduates and the pastor will speak on "Facing Life's Challenge Honestly."

Aaron B. Jacobs in Graduating Class

Aaron B. Jacobs, son of Mrs. Pearl H. Jacobs, 22004 Mariposa Ave., was among approximately 750 students receiving degrees at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute's 152nd commencement Friday.

Jacobs received the degree of bachelor of civil engineering.

RECEPTION . . . Pastor and Mrs. Goffar of the Torrance Seventh Day Adventist Church were special guests at a tea last week at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Don Moshos in Rolling Hills. Ladies of the church were sponsors of the affair. The Goffars left yesterday for camp where they will be joined by other church officials and members of California in a summer program.

Goffars Plan Trip to Ohio Conference

Pastor Glenn L. Goffar, of the Torrance Seventh-day Adventist church, and his family left Wednesday morning to attend the general conference session in Cleveland, Ohio, June 19 to 28.

From there they will visit relatives in Michigan, friends in Vermont and on to Portland, Maine, to visit areas of interest in connection with the beginning of the Advent movement.

Men Sponsor Services at EUB Church

Men of the Central EUB Church, 1543 Marcelina Ave., will have charge of the services on Father's Day, Sunday, at 11 a.m.

George Culley, president of the group, will preside and the guest speaker will be Wilford Haslam, former Torrance police chief. The Rev. T. B. Murphy will give the benediction.

Carl Pisel, Albert McNess, Wally Briney, John Stanton, and Mr. Stanley will provide music for the service.

At the 8 p.m. service, the young people will sponsor the showing of the film "Centerville Awakening."

Attend Benefit Dinner

Among the more than 400 outstanding Baptist leaders of Southern California gathered at the Beverly Hilton Hotel last week for the second annual benefit dance for California Baptist Theological Seminary of Covina were Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Hocott, 1308 Acacia Ave.

Youth Tells Of Miracle

A "Modern Day Miracle" will be the subject at the Harbor City Revival Tabernacle, 1032 W. Pacific Coast Hwy., next Sunday morning when 14-year-old Ronald Coyne tells how his right eye was removed seven years ago and ten months later his sight was instantly restored.

Pastor Fred Martin invites the public to see and hear this youth and take part in the worship service at 11 a.m.

Come to think of it . . . next Sunday is FATHER'S DAY. Since Dad's a practical fellow, perhaps you haven't stopped to realize he's also a sentimental fellow. Break down and show him how you feel about him on HIS day . . . and you can appeal to his practical side all year long by trading at VERMONT DAIRY FARMS and saving on the food budget.
