

AIR FORCE QUEEN . . . Brig. Gen. Delmar E. Wilson, commander, 36th Air Division, Davis-Monthan AFB, Arizona, crowns Mrs. Pat Gilkeson as Armed Forces Day Queen for 1958. Mrs. Gilkeson is the former Patricia Suttle, daughter of the Sam Suttles, 723 1/2 Sartori Ave. She was graduated from Torrance High in the summer of 1946. Her husband, Capt. Delmar Gilkeson, is from Lomita and is the former student body president of El Camino Junior College. Gilkeson is a graduate of the University of Southern California. The contest which Mrs. Gilkeson won was held in Tucson in connection with Armed Forces Day. (U.S.A.F. Photo)

COUPLE HONORED . . . Mrs. Forrest G. Murdock admires the orchid lei presented her by the associated students of El Camino College. President and Mrs. Murdock were honored Saturday night at a testimonial dinner held in the Campus Center and honoring President Murdock, who will leave the campus July 31, after 42 years in the field of education. He is the first and only president of the local college.
