

PTA ACTIVITIES

Evelyn Carr

May meeting of the Evelyn Carr Elementary PTA was called to order by the president, Mrs. Roland Stamm. The Pledge of Allegiance was led by the North Torrance Little League, Lennie Demora, Mike Brooks, Bobby Brewer, Jeff Fadick, Mike Jacobs, and Bill Cunerty. Mr. Val Meir gave the inspirational message.

In the absence of Richard Welte, Don Credell, vice principal, introduced the teachers of the month, Mrs. Kathryn Nesenson, Miss Helen Browne, Mrs. Betty Henfon and Mrs. Geneva Shelton.

The minutes were approved by the association. Treasurer's report was filed for the auditor. Highlights of the executive board meeting was read by the secretary, Mrs. Perry Baker. Historian's report was read by Mrs. Shelton. Chairmen featured for the month were—Mrs. Robert Mooney, eighth grade representative; record book; Mrs. Gerald Cunerty and Mrs. Albert Pesola, room representatives.

Mr. Credell introduced the guest speaker for the evening, Captain John Olquin of Cabrillo Beach Museum. Following Captain Olquin's talk, installation of officers was held. Mrs. Stamm announced that Mrs. Robert Heys would be installed as corresponding secretary, as Mrs. Jean Vance has resigned. Mrs. Kemp, director of education, 33rd District installed the officers. Mrs. Stamm presented Mrs. Allison, president-elect, with the gavel and president's pin. Mrs. Eldon Morgan presented Mrs. Stamm with her past-president's pin.

Hostesses for the evening were the kindergarten mothers and teachers.

223rd Street

The 223rd Street School PTA held its final board meeting for the 1957-1958 term recently in the teacher's room where a social hour and business meeting were combined. Mrs. H. Carroll and Mrs. George LaMontagne served coffee and rolls to the board members and the board members presented a gift to Mrs. Anania, the outgoing president.

Final plans were made for the annual council breakfast which is held each spring and also for the regular PTA meeting held June 10 in the school auditorium at 12:30 p.m. New officers were installed at this meeting, and the A6 class being promoted to junior high was presented at the meeting.

Casimir

"Hawaii" came to the Western Cafe last Wednesday evening when Casimir PTA held its annual end of the year dinner.

Hostesses, beautiful in Hawaiian costumes, greeted each guest with a lei and a kiss. This year a new precedent was set by inviting both husbands and wives to the affair.

Mrs. Barton Peters, president, welcomed everyone and introduced a well-known guest, Mrs. Robert Payne, former PTA president at Casimir. She then presented pins to Mrs. Norman Boy and Mrs. Larry Graham for their unselfish contribution to the association. The program, under the direction of Mrs. Boy, consisted of a Hawaiian hula dance by Mrs. O. K. Malini. "Hilo Hattie" (alias Mrs. Les Auguston) performed a Hawaiian number also. The guests listened to the music of the "Casimir Cats," the faculty band, after which Mrs. Boy and Mr. Dale Wickstrom performed "The Witch Doctor."

To climax the evening, an Hawaiian dance was done by the entire committee, consisting of Mrs. Pat Narey, Walter Keberlein, T. D. Wegener, Larry Graham, O. K. Malini and Les Auguston.

Flavian

"Beginning Our Second Milestone" as the theme of the Flavian PTA meeting for the month of May. The installation of officers was held, done in a flower theme with each officer receiving a flower of a different hue. The installation ceremony was under the direction of Mrs. Leonard Spedale, courtesy chairman.

Mrs. J. K. Edwins, president for her second term, gave a report of her trip to State PTA convention which was held in San Francisco this month.

William Clary, principal of Flavian thanked the PTA for the cooperation given him during this first year of the Flavian School.

The Mothersingers closed the program with several selections under the direction of Mrs. Z. W. Giza.

Coffee and pie were served in the home economics room, the seventh grade mothers as hostesses.

Carl Steele

The present kindergarten mothers were hostesses at a pre-school tea on Friday, May 18, for Kindergarten Parents-To-Be of Carl Steele School.

Mrs. Robert E. Walker, pre-school chairman, welcomed the group, led the pledge of allegiance and introduced the Mothersingers, the "Steele Belles."

The group, directed by Mrs. Norman Griffith, sang four selections accompanied by Mrs. Eddie Clark.

Other members of the chorus are Mrs. Ray Bonswitz, Alan Cooper, Joe Songy, Earl Barackman, Garrett McCown, Jerrold Doyle, Harold Armes, Loren Scheele, Jerry Madden, William Sparks, John Huback, Kenneth Munson and Leo Fischer.

Mrs. Walker then introduced Mrs. Kenneth McVey, PTA Council president-elect; Mrs. A. D. Hawkins, Carl Steele PTA president; Mrs. Thomas Greene, president-elect, and R. K. Petrat, principal.

The film, "The Kindergarten Way" was shown and a question period followed.

Kindergarten mothers acting as hostesses and donating refreshments were Mrs. Robert E. Walker, chairman; John Westling, Richard Wurm, David Allen, Harlan Judge, Doyle Wood, Ralph Woodard, Leo Fischer, John Huback, S. D. Teighland and Henry Rix.

Arlington

Last meeting of Arlington Elementary PTA for the year was held in the school cafeteria on May 15.

The inspirational message was sung by the Mothersingers of Sepulveda and Meadow Park schools. After a short business meeting, Mrs. Lloyd Van De Vort gave the historian's report, a resume of all the things accomplished by the unit for the year. This was followed by Mrs. W. E. Inman's District Convention report. Mrs. Francis Stutler, president-elect, reported on the State Convention in San Francisco.

Mrs. M. H. Spaulding covered the May Brunch and announced that Arlington won two awards, one for the program and one for the Publicity Record Book.

Miss Robinson's Fifth Grade class entertained with a poetic chant.

Miss Marian Jensen of the Torrance Recreation Department, explained the summer program and all the many fields of interest it covers.

Officers for the coming year were installed by Mrs. Evelyn Carr. This was followed by the exchange of president's pins by Mrs. Jack Prince, retiring

Carl Steele

A skit, "Nelle Hawkins, This Is Your Board," concluded the final meeting of Carl Steele PTA. The parody was narrated by R. K. Petrat, principal. Each member of the board enacted a highlight of the past year in tribute to their outgoing president, Mrs. Albert Hawkins.

The North High Chorus and Glee Club under the direction of Mr. Zavisian provided an inspiring program. Their rendition of the closing song of the Interlocken Camp was particularly moving.

Carl Steele's Swing Band also entertained. This group, under the leadership of Jerry Andrews played several selections including "Everybody Loves Saturday Night."

Mrs. D. D. Tuggle, past president of Torrance Council, presided over the installation of officers. Mrs. Thomas Greene, president, was formally installed and received her pin and the gavel from Mrs. Albert Hawkins. Serving with Mrs. Greene are: Mrs. Leo Fischer, Mrs. Howard Thompson, Mrs. Clifford Lane, and Mrs. James Woodruff, vice presidents; Mrs. Loren Scheele, secretary; Mrs. Donald Coleman, treasurer; Mrs. Warren Steele, historian, and Mrs. Albert Hawkins, parliamentarian. Neil Campbell, who was unable to attend the ceremonies, will serve as auditor.

North High

Last meeting for the school year for North High PTA was held May 20, with Mrs. J. R. Sanders, president, in charge. Haig Marashlian, auditor, gave his annual report.

Mrs. Joe Begando, president-elect, handed out printed copies of her report on the recent PTA convention held in San Francisco.

Mrs. Kenneth McVey, historian, gave a report on the year's accomplishments. As council president, she installed the following new officers for the year 1958-1959: president, Mrs. Joe Begando; first vice president, Mrs. W. Bayliff; second vice president, Mr. L. Dalton; third vice president, Mrs. R. Turner; recording secretary, Mrs. W. Wells; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. Robison; treasurer, Mrs. R. Donner; historian, Mrs. B. Richardson; auditor, Mrs. H. Herra.

Mrs. W. Bayliff, program chairman, introduced Linda Harris as the narrator for the students homemaking fashion show. One-hundred students modeled garments they had made in the clothing classes.

Mrs. J. R. Sanders presented Mrs. Joe Begando with her president's pin. Mrs. W. Bayliff presented Mrs. Sanders with a past president's pin and thanked her for all the work she had done as president for two years.

The meeting was adjourned to the cafeteria, where the freshman mothers served the refreshments.

president, and Mrs. Francis Stutler, president-elect.

Mrs. H. W. Nadeau and Mrs. Joseph Aimar and their committee furnished the refreshments during the social hour.

Halldale

Sepulveda

Sepulveda School PTA held its last association meeting May 15 in the school cafeteria.

Mr. Kelly led the seventh and eighth grade choruses in a selection of folk tunes. An autoharp was used for the musical instrument to lend authenticity to the Early American theme.

Mrs. James Stadler gave a report on the suggestions that have been turned in to the suggestion box.

Installation of new officers was held. Mrs. Albert Yackle was the officiating officer and Mrs. James Stadler pinned the corsages on each officer.

Mrs. James Craig read the historian's report which was written by Mrs. Albert Yackle. Credit was given to Mrs. Paul Halback, program chairman; Mrs. Arch Fairchild, publicity record book, and Mrs. John Regan, for 100 per cent membership drive. Each won recognition and an award for her work at the May 8 meeting of the Torrance council.

A kindergarten tea will be given by the Sepulveda PTA for the new kindergarten mothers June 3 from 1:30 until 2:30 p.m.

Mrs. J. B. Mosley, American Field representative, presented Miss Marjorie Towle of North High School and Miss Mary Sippel of Torrance High School—two foreign exchange students.

Miss Towle traveled by boat to Germany and across Denmark to Sweden where she stayed with her "family." "Her first impression of Sweden," she said, "was that it was very modern and quite a few American cars were seen." Miss Sippel also traveled by boat to Europe and then on to Finland to stay with her first "family," who lived on a large farm, and then to her second "family." She celebrated "Midsummer," which is a Finnish celebration, by the lighting of a bonfire and staying up all night to watch the sun shine. Both girls stated that their visits gave them a better understanding of our neighbors.

Rooms of Mrs. Rutter and Mr. McGee won the awards for the largest number of parents attending the meeting.

Mothers from Mrs. McBride's and Mrs. Hawkins' rooms were the hostesses for the evening.

HOWARD WOOD

Mrs. Paul Braswell was installed as the new president of Howard Wood PTA, on Thursday, May 15, in an Oak Tree Ceremony.

Each new officer was likened to a part of the tree, by Mrs. P. M. Crossman, installing officer and junior past president.

A membership pin was given to each officer as she assumed her positions. Receiving pins were Mmes. Ronald Wigg, E. L. Manchester, Dana Houston, H. D. Walsh, Ralph Engstrom, Edwin Smith, and Mr. R. D. Evans.

In a brief business meeting the group donated to the American Field Service, High School After-Graduation Party, Torrance Council Scholarship Fund, Dental Health Program and the Lunch and Milk Program.

Mrs. Branswell gave a brief report on the PTA state convention in San Francisco.

Mrs. C. W. Strahm, the past president, thanked all of her board for their support in the past year.

The program for the evening was a film on Lifeguards and Rip Tides, narrated by Mr. Walter Buettingbach.

The Mothersingers group under Mrs. Jack Hoy, sang "Silent Sea," "Let's Dance," and "Let All My Life Be Music" to close the PTA meeting.

God's Great Love Topic

"God the Preserver of Man" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, today.

Keystone of the sermon is the Golden Text from Psalms (121:7, 8), "The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil . . . The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore."
